

I am indebted to numerous colleagues from the Film Studies and Art History Departments of the University Lausanne and to many friends, with whom I shared ideas and deliberated frequently throughout the years of the inception and realization of this project. Special thanks to Marc-André Weber, Claire-Lise Debluë, Thibault Walter and Adeena Mey. I would like to thank Olivier Lugon for his guidance, his intellectual generosity and consistent patience throughout the realization of this endeavor, and to express my thankfulness to Bernd Stiegler and Christoph Schaden for their expertise, their kind help and their time in the conclusive phase of the dissertation, which led to this book. My gratitude also goes to Davide Nerini, Faye Corthésy and Sylvain Portmann for their relentless scrutiny of the manuscript and their productive comments, and to Kristie Kachler, whose proofreading of the book substantially improved its formal qualities and overall clarity.

For the opportunity to spend a productive one-year research residency at the Universität der Künste in Berlin under the fruitful tutorage of Martina Dobbe, I would like to thank the Swiss National Science Foundation (SNF) and the scholars who supported my application, Kornelia Imesch Oechslin and Susanne Bieri. Moreover, I would like to express my gratitude to the Faculty of Arts of the University Lausanne for being able to pursue this research while teaching in its ranks.

I would like to thank Annika Linnemann, Johanna Tönsing and the transcript team, for all their help, support and confidence in the process of realizing this book. I am thankful to the publication fund of the Arts Faculty of the University Lausanne, to the Société Académique Vaudoise, the Swiss National Science Foundation (SNF) and to the Fondation pour l'Université de Lausanne, for believing in this project and supporting it financially. Finally, thanks to Omnigroup for the insightful layout ideas and all the help and patience throughout the final stages of production of this book.

Above all, my deepest expression of appreciation goes to Séverine Graff, whose involvement I could not recount fittingly.
