

Contents

Table of Figures	7
INTRODUCTION	11
1. Key Concepts	16
2. Scope of the Research	20
3. Research Questions	21
4. Methodology	22
5. Theoretical Significance of the Research	24
6. Research Structure	26
CHAPTER I – ON THE RELATION BETWEEN ART AND ANTHROPOLOGY	29
1. An Introduction to the Relationship Between Art and Anthropology	29
2. Critiques of Ethnographic Practices and Representation	31
3. Experimental Strategies in Anthropology and Aesthetic Implications of the Anthropological Research	43
CHAPTER II – AN ANTHROPOLOGICAL APPROACH TO CONTEMPORARY ART	47
1. Questioning Hal Foster’s Concept ‘Ethnographic Turn in Arts’	47
2. Ethnographic Fieldwork as an Artistic Practice	49
3. Art, Anthropology and Socially Engaged Art Practices	52
4. Practices Between Art and Anthropology	64
5. New Genealogies and Representation Strategies	74
CHAPTER III – THE EMERGENCE OF CONTEMPORARY ART IN TURKEY	77
1. The Recognition of “Contemporary” in the Art Scene of Turkey	77
2. Breaking Points in the Contemporary Art in Turkey	84
3. Impacts of Globalization in Contemporary Art Scene in Turkey	94
4. From Socially Engaged Art to Ethnographic Practices	117

CHAPTER IV – ANTHROPOLOGICAL PRACTICES OF CONTEMPORARY ARTISTS

FROM TURKEY	123
1. An Introduction to Art and Anthropology Practices in the Context of Turkey ...	123
1. Approaching Immigrant Communities Through Art: Nil Yalter	126
2. Unveiling Hybrid Identities: Gülsün Karamustafa	137
3. Social Engagement Strategies: Esra Ersen	147
4. Construction of Identity: Kutluğ Ataman	163
5. Doing Archival Ethnography: Tayfun Serttaş	177
6. Doing Fieldwork as an Artist: Köken Ergun	189
7. Situationist Strategies in Everyday Life: Dilek Winchester	202
8. A Critical Approach to Documentation: Artıkışler Video Collective	209
CONCLUSION	223
Evaluation of the Theoretical Discussions	223
Overview of the Case	226
Discussion of the Works in Context	230
General Evaluation	238
Concluding Remarks	240
Acknowledgments	243
Bibliography	245