

Full Table of Contents

Four Worlds: A Sound Entry.	1
i) Origins: The Sounding Museum Begins	3
ii) Components: The Sounding Museum Box of Treasures	5
iii) The Totem Pole: Book Structure and Digital Media	6
iv) Addendum: Raven Tales	11
Raven and Mink Go Bear Hunting	15
World One: Hearing Heritage.	17
0 Bells	17
I Historic Soundscapes	20
I.1 Sound History	21
I.2 The Meaning of Sound to Culture from the Historic Point of View	22
I.3 Historic Accounts of the Notion of Sound	31
II Captured Sound	36
II.1 A Brief History of Sound Recording	37
II.2 The Sound Hunters and the World Soundscape Project	39
II.3 Field Recording in Music	45
III Studying the Soundscape	46
III.1 Basic Features	47
III.2 Figure and Ground	54
III.3 The Distinct Soundscape	56
III.4 Listening Types	61
III.5 Acoustic Communication	62
IV Aesthetic Atmospheres	65
IV.1 Acoustic Atmospheres	70
IV.2 Museum Atmospheres	76
V Intangible Cultural Heritage	80
V.1 A new Historic Consciousness	81
V.2 Folklore and Nationalism: Birth of the Intangible	83
V.3 Rise of the Intangible	84

V.4 Intangible Heritage today	86
Chapter Summary and Outlook I	92
How Raven Stole the Sun	93
World Two: Into the Sonic Wild.	97
o) Prelude	97
0:00'00"
Exposition: Coming to in Alert Bay	100
i) The Composition	102
ii) Field Recording	106
iii) Heavy Machines	108
iv) The Music of the Coast: The Piece	112
v) Being a Visitor	116
vi) Aftermath: When the Music's Over	117
April to September 2009
How, of all the Jerkwater Towns on Earth, did I Happen to End up in Alert Bay?	118
0:02'00"
1 st Movement: The Natural Soundscape	120
vii) Caught between the Rockies and the Pacific	123
October 2 nd
Ecological Park: Wind and Water, Owls and Ravens, and the Crows	127
0:06'20"
2 nd Movement: The Artificial Soundscape	129
viii) Peoples of the Coast	131
ix) Alert Bay	134
September 29 th
The Carvers	135
0:11'23"
3 rd Movement: The Human Soundscape	141
x) Residential School	144
September 28 th to October 9 th
U'mista Cultural Centre: New Acquaintances	147

0:20'00"
Intermission: The Wa Experience		152
xi) The Grease Trail		153
October 2 nd /3 rd
A Night at Woss Lake		155
0:22'30"
4 th Movement: The Cultural Soundscape		158
xii) Potlatch – To dance a Mask		163
xiii) Being a Tourist in Kwaki-Country: Methodological Considerations		167
0:33'45"
Touristy Interlude & Reprise: Down to Earth		169
Winter 2011/2012
Alert Bay Revisited		170
Chapter Summary and Outlook II		173
Prologue		175
Between the Worlds: How to make a Good Soundscape Composition and the Session Musician Approach.		177
a) What is a Good Cultural Soundscape Composition?		177
b) The Session Musician's Approach and its Precursors		181
c) Coeval Collaboration and the Bandleader Oxymoron		191
d) Schizophonic Effects of Dislocated Cultural Sound		194
e) Final Remarks		196
Raven and the First Men		199
World Three: The Ethnographer's Ear.		201
0 Point of Departure		201
0.1a) Objective and Chapter Structure		202
0.1b) Synopsis Anthropology		204
0.1c) Questions		207
0.2 The Savage and the Civilised		209
I Conquista Histórica: Encounters		216
I.1 Pictures of an Exhibition: Primitive Art		222

II Conquista Antropológica: The Classical Age of Anthropology and its Repercussions	229
II.1 Currents: The Founding Fathers of Anthropology and their Diadochi	230
II.2 Time and the Orient: Modern Critique of Classical Anthropology	235
II.3 Feldwork: A Musician of my Taste	243
III Conquista Particular: Anthropological Subjects Related to “Two Weeks in Alert Bay”	246
III.1 The Common Anthropoid: Generalisation Issues	246
III.2 “Indianer!”: Popular Books	250
III.3 Wikitalk: Naming the Other	252
III.4 The Apple Tree: Protocol and Copyright, Schizophonia and Presentation Formats	255
IV Conquista Igual: First Voices	260
IV.1 Napoleonic Law	261
IV.2 Simon’s Story	263
IV.3 A Boy who Cuts Paper into the Shape of his Face	266
V Conquista Personal (Reconquista)	271
V.1 My Story: Essentially Communication	272
V.2 Only A Sith Deals in Absolutes	278
V.3 Participant Observation Ain’t no Rock’n’Roll	281
V.4 Finally...	283
Chapter Summary and Outlook III	284

Raven and Fog Woman 287

World Four: Acoustic Experiences at the Lake. 289

I Museum: Origin, History, Purpose 291

 I.1 History of the Museum 292

 I.2 Aura and Constructed Meaning 296

 I.3 Anthropology and Museum 299

 I.4 Museum and Media: Intermediary Reassessment ICOM Definition 302

II Sound in the Museum 306

 II.1 Audioguide 306

II.2 Loudspeaker-Based Applications	309
II.3 Sound as the Central Medium	312
III NONAM/Sound Chamber	315
III.1 Two Weeks in the Museum	319
III.2 The Documenter and the Documentary	322
III.3 Workshop	325
III.3.1 Stage One: A Sound Education	327
III.3.2 Stage Two: Indian in a Box	338
III.3.2.1 The Permanent Exhibition	342
III.3.2.2 The Sound Chamber	342
III.3.2.3 Soundwalking	343
III.3.3 Raven Revisited	348
III.3.4 Conclusion	352
IV Coeval Museum Didactics	356
Chapter Summary and Outlook IV	364
The Two Ravens	365
Next World: The Way of the Mask.	368
i) Looking Back: Mission Accomplished?	369
ii) Expanding: Different Formats and Contexts	370
iii) The Future: First Voices and Sensory Holism?	373
iv) Towards an Auditory Anthropology	376
v) Applied Auditory Anthropology: Four Worlds Consolidated	382
xx) The Glocal Community: A whole World of Communication	385
Resources	387
a) Bibliography	387
b) Websites	395
c) Other	397
Notes on Audio Media	398
About the Author	402