

Contents

---

|          |                                                          |     |
|----------|----------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 1 | Introduction: Scotland's democratic nationalism   | 9   |
| 1.1      | Scotland's separatist nationalism                        | 11  |
| 1.2      | Two problems of research related to Scottish nationalism | 14  |
| 1.3      | Thesis on Scotland's democratic nationalism              | 19  |
| 1.4      | Outline of the Study                                     | 21  |
| 2 | Motives for and against secession                 | 27  |
| 2.1      | Motives for secession                                    | 29  |
| 2.2      | Motives against secession                                | 42  |
| 2.3      | Conclusion                                               | 52  |
| 3 | Political collective                              |     |
|          | Scotland's regional nation of presence                   | 55  |
| 3.1      | Voluntarist and residential demarcation                  | 57  |
| 3.2      | Voting rights: "the people who live and work here"       | 60  |
| 3.3      | Radicalising the regional inclusion and exclusion        | 69  |
| 3.4      | Automatic citizenship: Traces of ethnic exclusion        | 73  |
| 3.5      | Explaining the political collective                      | 78  |
| 3.6      | Conclusion                                               | 85  |
| 4 | A national commitment                             |     |
|          | "Scottish Conviction"                                    | 87  |
| 4.1      | National value commitment                                | 88  |
| 4.2      | Political ideology                                       | 92  |
| 4.3      | Conclusion                                               | 99  |
| 5 | National collective                               |     |
|          | Anthem as national self-description                      | 103 |
| 5.1      | Context of origin: Globalisation of sport                | 106 |
| 5.2      | Taking the national anthem from the people               | 112 |

|           |                                                                      |     |
|-----------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 5.3       | The meaning of the anthem .....                                      | 117 |
| 5.4       | Conclusion: Two collectives .....                                    | 129 |
| 6  | Coupling the political and national collectives               |     |
|           | Parliament as a national symbol .....                                | 131 |
| 6.1       | Planning a national symbol: It takes a team .....                    | 132 |
| 6.2       | The nation: designed and engraved .....                              | 138 |
| 6.3       | Political tradition by and in action: Scottish politics .....        | 146 |
| 6.4       | Conclusion: Sociocultural evolution of the Scottish Parliament ..... | 153 |
| 7  | Religious unionism and separatism .....                       | 157 |
| 7.1       | Clergy – “present the arguments” .....                               | 158 |
| 7.2       | Believers of unionism and separatism .....                           | 168 |
| 7.3       | Discussion .....                                                     | 169 |
| 8  | Higher education and national universalism .....              | 177 |
| 8.1       | Mechanisms of Scottish universalism .....                            | 180 |
| 8.2       | Scottishness and university .....                                    | 185 |
| 8.3       | Internationalisation and nationalisation .....                       | 187 |
| 9  | Political and economic autonomies                             |     |
|           | The currency conflict and global trade .....                         | 189 |
| 9.1       | Currency union .....                                                 | 189 |
| 9.2       | Anticipating the question of currency .....                          | 195 |
| 9.3       | Autonomy by pluralisation of dependencies .....                      | 198 |
| 10 | Gaelic in democratic nationalism .....                        | 201 |
| 10.1      | Multicultural integration by Gaelic .....                            | 202 |
| 10.2      | Celtic revival: From virtue to sentimentality .....                  | 204 |
| 10.3      | European multiculturalism .....                                      | 206 |
| 10.4      | Conclusion .....                                                     | 207 |
| 11 | Conclusion .....                                              | 209 |
| 11.1      | Summary .....                                                        | 209 |
| 11.2      | Comparing democratic and autocratic nationalism .....                | 211 |
|           | Bibliography .....                                            | 217 |
|           | List of figures .....                                         | 249 |
|           | Index .....                                                   | 251 |