

Contents

Preface 7

Ethnography, Folklore, and Nineteenth-Century Print Culture
Christiane Schwab, Frauke Ahrens, Karin Riedl 9

Social Complexity and Artistic Complicity in Early Parisian Caricature Journals
Adriana Markantonatos 21

The Circulations of Matthea, the Legendary Ghent Beguine, in Time, Space, and Genre
David Hopkin 43

Secondary Orality and the Influence of Print Culture in Schönwerth's Fairy Tales, 1854–1886
Silvie Lang 61

Costumbrismo Peruano*: Sociographic Knowledge, Nation-Building, and the Appropriation of European Literary Forms, 1840–1860
Karin Riedl 79

'Dark Continents' on the Margins of the European Metropolis: The Traveling of a Topos in Nineteenth-Century Print Culture
Daniela Gretz 101

Introducing Sámi Peoples to the Late Nineteenth-Century Italian Readership: Paolo Mantegazza's Popular and Academic Accounts of Sápmi
Erika De Vivo 127

George Frederick Abbott: Sketcher and Scholar of Macedonia
Jonathan Roper 147

“It is Like Being ‘in’ a Story”: The Influence of Nineteenth- and Early Twentieth-Century Literature on Bronislaw Malinowski’s Work as Reflected in His Letter Exchange With Elsie Masson
Daniela Salvucci169

Figures 191

Authors201