

Contents

---

Preface .....	7
Ethnography, Folklore, and Nineteenth-Century Print Culture
Christiane Schwab, Frauke Ahrens, Karin Riedl .....	9
Social Complexity and Artistic Complicity in Early Parisian Caricature Journals
Adriana Markantonatos .....	21
The Circulations of Matthea, the Legendary Ghent Beguine, in Time, Space, and Genre
David Hopkin .....	43
Secondary Orality and the Influence of Print Culture in Schönwerth's Fairy Tales, 1854–1886
Silvie Lang .....	61
Costumbrismo Peruano: Sociographic Knowledge, Nation-Building, and the Appropriation of European Literary Forms, 1840–1860
Karin Riedl .....	79
'Dark Continents' on the Margins of the European Metropolis: The Traveling of a Topos in Nineteenth-Century Print Culture
Daniela Gretz .....	101
Introducing Sámi Peoples to the Late Nineteenth-Century Italian Readership: Paolo Mantegazza's Popular and Academic Accounts of Sápmi
Erika De Vivo .....	127
George Frederick Abbott: Sketcher and Scholar of Macedonia
Jonathan Roper .....	147

“It is Like Being ‘in’ a Story”: The Influence of Nineteenth- and Early Twentieth-Century Literature on Bronislaw Malinowski’s Work as Reflected in His Letter Exchange With Elsie Masson

Daniela Salvucci ..... 169

Figures ..... 191

Authors ..... 201