

Contents

Introduction: Decentering World’s Fairs
Transcultural Perspectives on Art, Fashion, and Latin America
Alexandra Karentzos, Miriam Oesterreich, Elena Nustrini, Lizzy Rys 7

Rail Travel as Gesamtkunstwerk
Fashionable Encounters at the 1893 Chicago World’s Fair
Rebecca Houze 53

“To Educate and Refine Public Taste”
Participation of the Darmstadt Artists’ Colony at the World’s Fairs
Sandra Bornemann-Quecke 83

Curating Hierarchies
A Reading of Kuba Embroideries at the Colonial Pavilion of Tervuren in 1897
Lizzy Rys 107

Selling Art Nouveau Fashion at World’s Fairs, 1893-1908
Clare Rose 131

The ‘Spectacle’ of Imperialism
Exhibiting the ‘World’ at International Expositions
Catherine Futter 157

Paris 1867
Staging gauchos from the River Plate at the World’s Fair
Laura Malosetti Costa 181

Etching the Trans/National Landscape

Argentina and Italy in the Context of International Exhibitions and the Etching Revival

Elena Nustrini 213

Nostalgia for Progress

Pre-Hispanic References in the Parisian World's Fairs, 1855-1937

Élodie Vaudry 247

Fashion Behind Glass

Seduction, Alienation, and Experiences of the 'Modern,' 1900-1908

Paula Alaszkiewicz 275

On the Verge of War

Latin American Pavilions at the 1937 Exposition Internationale in Paris

Michele Greet 303

Between Bodies

Locating Fashion and Dress in the Peruvian National Pavilion,
New York World's Fair 1939-1940

Alida R. Jekabson 323

Curiosity, Sympathy and Influence

A Close Look at the Belgian Art Exhibitions Organized in Argentina After the Second World War

Laurens Dhaenens 351

Image Credits 381

Biographies 393