

Contents

Practicing the family – Introduction

Sabine Bollig and Lisa Groß7

I Practicing the family/families in relations

Doing families in ecologies of care

Florian Eßer and Dominik Krinninger 25

Intersecting Spaces

Relational dynamics and educational inequalities at the intersection of family and school

Jürgen Budde 41

Doing Family at the crossroads of organisations and private lives

Karin Jurczyk, Maria S. Rerrich and Barbara Thiessen 59

II Practicing the family/families in welfare state contexts

Doing family right

The impact of childhood institutions on family practices, parental norms, and social distinctions

Eva Gulløv77

Covid-19 and ‘the making of families’ in (post)welfare state

Thomas Grunau 93

Intergenerational dynamics of family practices among young adults and their parents living together during the pandemic

Paula Pustulka, Justyna Kajta and Jowita Radzińska105

III Practicing the family/families in education & social work

"Doing parenthood" within ambivalent orders of recognition

Almut Peukert 123

Doing family in welfare practices of early preventive services

Stephan Dahmen, Amanda Edler and Helga Kelle 139

Practices of doing difference in relation to families

Reflections on the collaboration of early education and early intervention

Simone Seitz and Catalina Hamacher 157

The making and doing of migrant (m)others in Germany – subjectivation in the context of early childhood education and care

Vanessa Schwenker and Philipp Sander mann 175

Doing 'shared care' in between family and early childhood education and care

Sabrina Göbel and Sabine Bollig 193

IV Research paths on practicing the family/families

Tattooing Family – doing and displaying family through tattoos by young people in residential care

Lisa Groß 211

Doing family by means of adoption

The depiction of long-term adoption in films for children and young people

Christina Herrmann 229

Family generational relations in the context of refuge and asylum

Methodological reflections on the investigation of doing and displaying family

Jiayin Li-Gottwald, Manuela Westphal, Samia Aden and Franziska Korn 245

List of Authors 259