Acknowledgements

The present book is based on my doctoral thesis, defended at the Faculty of Law of the Freie Universität Berlin in November 2023. I am deeply indebted to my supervisor, Prof. Dr. Anne Peters, for her invaluable support, trust and encouragement. I would also like to thank my second supervisor, Prof. Dr. Helmut Aust, for his feedback and advice.

Special thanks also to my former colleagues at the Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law in Heidelberg for the constructive conversations and feedback on the thesis, particularly in the context of the ‘Tuesday meetings’ of Prof. Peters’ team and the ‘Coloquio Iberoamericano’ organised by Dr. Mariela Morales. In this context, thanks also to the other doctoral candidates of the Institute for the more informal part of our time there, it was a pleasure sharing this journey with you.

This book also benefitted from research stays at the Inter-American Court of Human Rights and at the Department for the Execution of Judgments of the European Court of Human Rights, for which I also want to express my gratitude to these two institutions. At the institutional level, I also want to thank the Max Planck Society for funding my position as a Research Fellow at the Max Planck Institute and for enabling this Open Access publication. Finally, thanks to Mario Petoshati for his excellent work proof-reading and editing this book.

Para acabar, quiero dar gracias por encima de todo a mis padres, mi hermano y el resto de mi familia por su apoyo constante a lo largo de tantos años, a mis amigos por estar siempre allí a pesar de la distancia, y a Julia por acompañarme y aguantarme durante todo este trayecto.
