For Theodor and Helen

Acknowledgments

This book has been a journey, in so many respects. It represents my PhD thesis that was submitted in December 2022 and defended in April 2023 at Ludwig-Maximilians-University Munich.

From the first idea about the subject of my PhD until the final publication of the book, not only some time has gone down the river, but many roads have been taken, professional and personal. And a book like this, as many other achievements of these times, would not have been possible without the support from many, many people which I am immensely grateful for. To thank them all in the way they would deserve would go far beyond the confines of such a text.

First of all, my heartfelt thanks go to my supervisor and mentor, Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. mult. Bruno Simma, former judge at the International Court of Justice and judge at the Iran-United States Claims Tribunal, for his time, advice, constructive critique and his constant interest in my PhD-topic as well as my personal endeavors. As well, I am grateful to Prof. Dr. Christian Walter not only for the time I could spend at his chair for public international law in Munich, but especially for the swift and enlightening second review of my thesis. Prof. Dr. Rudolf Streinz is to be thanked for his willingness to participate as an examiner in my viva in Munich. Prof. Dr. Claus Dieter Classen and his chair offered me “academic shelter” as well as the space and time for development during my years as a research fellow in Greifswald. Further acknowledgment has to go to Prof. Dr. Stefan Talmon LL.M. M.A., who was the first to hint me to the topic of acquired rights. I am as well indebted to the directors of the Max-Planck Institute for Comparative Public and International Law, Prof. Dr. Armin von Bogdandy and Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. Anne Peters, LL.M. (Harvard), for accepting my book for their prestigious book series “Contributions on Comparative Public Law and International Law” and in particular to Prof. Peters for her invitation to a research stay in Heidelberg.

I also owe much gratitude to my two mentors, Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. Dr. h.c. Angelika Nußberger M.A. and Dr. Almut Wittling-Vogel, who both provided motivating, thoughtful and personal insights into their professional careers and life choices inside and outside of academia. Dr. Mateja S. Platise

Mjur. (Oxford) is to be thanked for her preparedness to discuss relevant points of the Yugoslav succession process with me.

As well, the numerous colleagues and friends during my times in Munich, Bonn, Heidelberg and Greifswald who offered intriguing conversations, the possibility to present my thoughts, practical help and often also the much-needed distraction from legal issues, amongst them Prof. Dr. Helmut Aust, Prof. Dr. Thomas Burri, PD Dr. Björnstjern Baade, Chun-Kyung Paulus Suh, Stephan Lorentz, Kristina Schönfeld and Dr. Alexander Iben, were essential for the success of this project. Last but not least, I am grateful to Felix who supported and encouraged me during the years of research, writing and the time in between, and therefore has made this PhD a truly common endeavor.

This book is dedicated to my children, who have been my continuity in times of change.
