

Contents

Introduction

Ingrid Kummels, Claudia Rauhut, Birte Timm, and Stefan Rinke | 7

From “Survival” to “Dialogue”: Analytic Tropes in the Study of African-Diaspora Cultural History

J. Lorand Matory | 33

On Talking Past Each Other, Productively: Anthropology and the Black Atlantic, Twenty Years On

Stephan Palmié | 57

Trans-Atlantic Educational Crossroads: Experiences of Mozambican Students in Cuba

Hauke Dorsch | 77

Turning Back to the Turning Point: The Day of Guanahani in 1492 in Global Perspective

Stefan Rinke | 97

Theorizing Dominican Modernity: The Crossroads of “Revolution” on Hispaniola

Maja Horn | 109

Migration Flows and the Politics of Exclusion in the French Antilles

Kristen S. Childers | 121

Staging the Caribbean: Dialogues on Diasporic Antillean Music and Dance in Paris during the Jazz Age

Ingrid Kummels | 141

Rasta in Revolution: The Rastafari Movement in Socialist Cuba

Katrin Hansing | 165

A Transatlantic Restoration of Religion: On the Re-construction of Yoruba and Lúkú mí
in Cuban Santería

Claudia Rauhut | 181

Petrodollar, Bolivarianism, and the Re-Yorubanization of Santería
in Chávez's Socialist Venezuela

Félix Ayoh'Omidire | 201

CaribBerlin: Multiple Paths in the Religious Life of a German Oricha Priest

Lioba Rossbach de Olmos | 225

Processes of Cultural Transfer in 19th-Century Literature:
The Caribbean within the Context of the Cultural Radiance of Europe, exemplified by France and Spain (1789-1886)

Gesine Müller | 239

Scattered Seeds: Transnational Origins of the Decolonization Movement in Jamaica

Birte Timm | 253

Transient Histories: Memory and Movements
Within the 19th Century Caribbean

Matthew J. Smith | 273

Contributors | 291