

Contents

Introduction

Ndongo Samba Sylla and Kai Koddenbrock 9

Part One: Delinking

Eight Points on Ecological Delinking

Max Aji 25

The Relevance and Timeliness of Delinking

Demba Moussa Dembélé 37

Dismantling Green Colonialism

Towards a Just Transition in North Africa

Hamza Hamouchene 49

Part Two: Reparations

Ecological Imperialism and Ecological Reparations

Franklin Obeng-Odoom 61

From Downscaling to Global Justice

Towards a Convergence of Climate Reparations and Degrowth

Matthias Schmelzer 85

Macroeconomic Policymaking for Reparative Justice

Matthew Robinson 97

The Brazen White Sign of the Dollar
Monetary Narrative, Imperial Crisis, and Black Revolt
Peter James Hudson	107

Part Three: Money and Debt

The Problem of Money in International Monetary Reform
Fathimath Musthaq	129

Money as a Common

How and Why Money Should Be Placed in the Service of the People and Their Environment in Africa, both Globally and Locally, by Rethinking It as Part of the Commons
Jean-Michel Servet	147

Sovereign Debt Crisis and Africa's Economic Sovereignty

Is the African Repo Market the Solution?
Horman Chitonge	157

The Case for the Suspension of Payment or Repudiation of Odious Debts

Éric Toussaint	175
-----------------------------	-----

Part Four: Challenging Economic Orthodoxy

Heterodox Economics, Neoclassical Economic Failures and Socio-economic Challenges in Africa

A Paradigmatic View
Howard Stein	187

Dakar 1972

Recovering IPE's Anti-colonial Moment
Felipe Antunes de Oliveira and Ingrid Harvold Kvangraven	203

Appendix

The Dakar Declaration 2022	217
Author Information	223

