

Contents

Acknowledgements | 7

Initial Considerations | 9

OklahomaisOK | 15

Supporting the Indefinable | 27

Text as Practice | 27

Politics of Place | 33

Dis/location | 37

Disappearance and Reconsidered Experience | 37

A Transposition of Sacrifice | 44

Destructive Exchange | 50

Locating the Discourse | 53

Raw Phenomenological Method | 59

Foundational Phenomenology | 61

Strategies and Context | 64

Courting Dissolution | 71

A Practice of Adumbrational Space | 71

Experience and Adumbrations | 72

Robert Smithson and Colonisation as an Act of Disappearance | 85

Nonsites and Land Art | 86

Production of Space | 99

Non-Representational Space | 104

Practising Space | 111

Alterity as a Reaction to Globalisation | 111

Fragmentation and Mobility towards a Singular Other | 114

Fragmentation as Radical Alterity | 125

Mobility and the Conjunctive Loci | 132

Radicality | 142

Ellipsis | 151

Appendix | 157

untitled (meets in the middle), digital video (projection), 9:08 | 157

untitled (meets at the end), digital video (projection), 18:00 | 160

untitled (linear lapse), digital video (projection), 6:25 | 162

untitled, 10 analogue photographs printed on habotai silk

on wooden frames with fluorescent lights,

each 80cm x 110cm x 10cm | 164

untitled, series of 4,506 photograph installation,

each 102mm x 152mm | 175

Bibliography | 181