

About the authors

Tatiana Chetvernina is director of the Institute for Social Development Studies, at the State University – Higher School of Economics, Moscow. e-mail: tchetvernina@hse.ru.

Mustafa Durmus Dr is Associate Professor at Gazi University IIBF, Turkey.

Branimir Jovanovic MSc is a Junior Analyst in the Research Department of the National Bank of Republic of Macedonia. He obtained his MSc from Staffordshire University, Stoke-on-Trent, UK and won the 2007 Annual Award for Best Young Macroeconomic Researcher from the National Bank of the Republic of Macedonia. His research fields include economic modelling and forecasting and applied economics and econometrics. e-mail: jovanovicb@nbrm.gov.mk

Jarosław Korpysa is employed in the Department of Microeconomics of the Faculty of Economics and Management, Szczecin University (Poland). He has published widely in his specialist fields and his research interests encompass entrepreneurship, microeconomics, modern business theories, human resources, competitive strategy, risk management and the labour market.

Rajko Kosanović PhD is Counsellor to the President of the Confederation of Autonomous Trade Unions of Serbia. Previously, he was employed at the Health Secretariat of the City Assembly of Belgrade as Assistant Secretary for Economic Affairs. He has published several books and has written over 190 articles.

Dejan Kostić is Manager of the Agency for the Peaceful Resolution of Labour Disputes of the Republic of Serbia.

Sanja Paunović MSc (Econ.) is a Senior Adviser in the Confederation of Autonomous Trade Unions of Serbia. Previously, she was employed in a series of government departments for Serbia and the federal government of Serbia and Montenegro. She has authored several books and has written over 50 articles.

Aleksandar Stojkov MSc. is Teaching Assistant at the Department of Business Law and Economics, Iustinianus Primus Faculty of Law, Ss. Cyril and Methodius University in Skopje, Macedonia. e-mail: astojkov@pf.ukim.edu.mk.