

Contents

| | |
|--|----|
| Acknowledgements | 11 |
| Summary | 13 |
| Abbreviations | 15 |
| A. Introduction | 17 |
| 1. Contested identities between New Türkiye and New Tyrol | 17 |
| 2. Situating the Study | 21 |
| 2.1. State of Research | 23 |
| Migration Studies in Tyrol | 23 |
| International Remittances Studies | 26 |
| 2.2. Research Objectives and Research Questions | 28 |
| 2.3. Structure of the Study | 31 |
| B. Theoretical Concepts | 33 |
| 3. Applied Concepts and Theories | 33 |
| 3.1. Disseminating Identities - social remittances and their impacts | 34 |
| Transactions beyond money: interrelations between social, political, and cultural remittances | 35 |
| Intangible Capital | 38 |
| The Media and Social Remittances | 39 |
| Conclusion | 42 |
| 3.2. Transnational Migration - the migrants that never migrated | 43 |
| Prologue to the Guest Worker | 43 |
| Transnational Migration and Postmigration Society | 46 |
| Methodological Nationalism and Racism | 51 |
| Conclusion: marginalised migrants | 54 |
| 3.3. When Muslims were made Muslims - Anti-Muslim Racism | 55 |
| Workings of racism and anti-Muslim Racism | 57 |
| Linguistic differences: Islamophobia and anti-Muslim Racism | 60 |

| | |
|--|-----------|
| Culturizing Religion through the Internal Narrative | 61 |
| Creating the bad Muslim | 63 |
| When Scheherazade became Ayşe | 68 |
| Conclusion | 70 |
| 3.4. Conceptualising Identity | 72 |
| What is Identity and Identification? | 73 |
| Belonging and Narratives | 76 |
| Contested Religious Identity | 78 |
| The Identity of a Challenging Migrant | 80 |
| Conclusion | 81 |
| 3.5. Synopsis | 83 |
| 3.5.1. Interrelated Forms of Remittances | 83 |
| 3.5.2. Transnational Postmigration | 84 |
| 3.5.3. Anti-Muslim Racism | 85 |
| 3.5.4. Identification Processes | 86 |
| C. Methodological Thoughts | 87 |
| 4. Methodological Approach | 87 |
| 4.1. Ethnography: Eat, Drink, and Make Science | 88 |
| 4.2. Narrative Interview | 91 |
| 4.3. Reconstruction of Narrative Identity | 92 |
| 4.4. Coding | 96 |
| 4.5. Sample | 97 |
| D. Between the Good, Bad and Challenging Migrant | 99 |
| 5. Narratives and the Sites | 99 |
| 5.1. "New" Tyrol: Symbolic Power of the Catholic Tyrolean Identity | 101 |
| 5.1.1. The Narrative of the Nation and Linear Coherence | 101 |
| 5.1.2. Invented Traditions and Practices | 104 |
| 5.1.3. Myths to found Nations | 106 |
| 5.1.4. Pure Exclusive People | 107 |
| Integrating the Good Migrant into Tyrol | 108 |
| Concluding thoughts on Tyrol | 111 |
| 5.1.5. Fulpmes – where are all the Turks? | 114 |
| 5.1.6. Telfs – "one community unites many cultures" | 118 |
| 5.2. New Turkey | 122 |
| 5.2.1. The Rise of the AKP | 122 |
| 5.2.2. Paradigm Shift and AKP's Hegemony | 127 |
| 5.2.3. Creating the New Muslim | 130 |
| Resurrecting the Ottoman Ethos | 131 |
| Family and Women (Nationalism) | 133 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| 5.2.4. The Transnational Extent of New Türkiye | 136 |
| 6. Reconstructing Narrative Identities | 139 |
| 6.1. Ayşe: "I have a patchwork identity" | 139 |
| 6.1.1. Moving to Tyrol as a child | 140 |
| 6.1.2. Becoming 'different' | 142 |
| 6.1.3. A normal Anatolian family | 143 |
| 6.1.4. Stigmata from both Austria and Türkiye | 146 |
| 6.1.5. Developing transnational practices ("creolization") | 148 |
| 6.1.6. The negative effect of political remittances: "Keep out your politics from home" | 149 |
| 6.1.7. Crafting identities "We have a different identity" | 152 |
| 6.2. Önder: "Apparently, I am the classic Turkish woman" | 154 |
| 6.2.1. Early Childhood in the upper sides of Innsbruck | 155 |
| 6.2.2. Implicit racism in daily routine | 158 |
| 6.2.3. Becoming the Turkish woman | 159 |
| 6.2.4. The impact of media and political remittances | 169 |
| 6.2.5. The Gummy Bear Nationalism | 170 |
| 6.3. Nergis: "I was born in Tyrol but never strayed away from Turkishness" | 173 |
| 6.3.1. Preserving Turkishness in Tyrol after remigration from Türkiye | 174 |
| 6.3.2. The standard of Turkishness | 178 |
| 6.3.3. The role of the cuisine in transmitting (trans)national religious identities | 179 |
| 6.3.4. Social remittances from everywhere and Hijrah | 181 |
| 6.4. Hasret: "We live two lives – one here and another in Türkiye" | 184 |
| 6.4.1. Growing up being Turkish – then and now | 185 |
| 6.4.2. Exclusion in Tyrol | 187 |
| 6.4.3. Differences between "Us" versus "Them" | 192 |
| 6.4.4. The Chicken Dilemma | 195 |
| 6.4.5. Social remittances and television serials | 197 |
| E. Synthesis | 203 |
| 7. Merging Theoretical Discussions with Empirical Outcome | 203 |
| 7.1. Remittances subjectify | 203 |
| 7.2. Meaning and Knowledge through Exclusion and Discrimination | 211 |
| 7.3. Self-culturalization of the TransNational | 216 |
| F. Concluding Thoughts | 221 |
| G. Bibliography | 225 |

