

Contents

Video Conferencing: Infrastructures, Practices, Aesthetics

An Introduction

Axel Volmar, Olga Moskatova, and Jan Distelmeyer 9

Teaching | Learning

A Study Abroad during Covid-19

Kalani Michell 45

Teaching Into the Void

Reflections on “Blended” Learning and Other Digital Amenities

Donatella Della Ratta 69

Presence in Video Conferencing in Teaching Contexts as a Means for Positioning Subjects

Andreas Weich, Irina Kaldrack, and Philipp Deny 89

The Anatomy of Zoom Fatigue

Geert Lovink 109

The Need for Intentionally Equitable Hospitality in Video Conferencing

Maha Bali 127

Infrastructuring | Interfacing

Laws of Zoom

Kim Albrecht 135

Video Conferencing as Programmatic Relations

Conditions, Consequences, and Mediality of Zoom & Co

Jan Distelmeyer 149

Techniques of the Face

The Art and Politics of Video Conferencing (Inter)Faces

Christian Ulrik Andersen and Søren Bro Pold 169

Performing | Appearing

Sociospatiality between Agency and Fixation

Framing the Fixed View in Video Conferencing Arrangements

Laura Katharina Mücke 189

Eye Contact with the Machine

Gaze Correction in Video Conferencing

Robert Rapoport and Vera Tollmann 209

Performing Video Conferencing and VR for a “Real Virtual Life”

A Warm Welcome to Distant Socializing!

Martina Leeker 233

“In Eight and a Half Seconds the World Has Changed”

An Interview with Telecommunication Art Pioneer Bill Bartlett

Tilman Baumgärtel 259

Working | Cooperating

Things in the Background

Video Conferencing and the Labor of Being Seen

Alexandra Anikina 275

People Who Stare at Screens

Winfried Gerling 293

Video Conferencing and Performance Magic

Will Houstoun and Katharina Rein 325

Dis/Abling Video Conferences

A Video- and Auto-Ethnographic Exploration of Remote Collaboration Situations

Tom Bieling, Beate Ochsner, Siegfried Saerberg, Robert Stock, and Frithjof Esch 343

Authors 365

