

Contents

Abstract	9
-----------------------	---

Preface

by Prof. Dr. phil. habil. Sabine Knierbein	11
--	----

1 Introduction	17
-----------------------------	----

1.1 Why (Utopianism of) Care?	18
-------------------------------------	----

1.2 Methodology and Book Structure	20
--	----

1.3 Research Questions.....	23
-----------------------------	----

2 Imagined Worlds	25
--------------------------------	----

2.1 Transformative Utopianisms: Utopia as Method	26
--	----

2.2 Social Imaginaries	37
------------------------------	----

2.3 Spatial Imaginaries	43
-------------------------------	----

3 Constructed Narratives	49
---------------------------------------	----

3.1 Unfulfilled Promises of Modernity	50
---	----

3.2 The Crisis Narrative	54
--------------------------------	----

3.3 Transformation, Multiple Crises, and Truth Regimes	58
--	----

4	Linking Utopianism, Crisis, and Architecture	65
4.1	Crisis and Architecture: The Meaning of Architecture in Crisis Society	66
4.2	Architecture and Utopianism: Space and Projectivity	75
4.3	Utopianism and Crisis: Time and Emancipation	84
5	Space-Times of Control: Problem-Solving Utopianisms	99
5.1	Degenerate Utopias: Utopianism and the Disavowal of Crisis	100
5.2	Junkspace: Anti-Utopianism and Omni-Crisis	108
5.3	Techno-Utopias: Utopianism 'Solving' Crisis	114
6	Space-Times of Care: Question-Raising Utopianisms	121
6.1	Agency: Architecture's Political Dimension	122
6.2	Rethinking Architectural Education	128
6.3	Embodied Utopianisms of Care	138
7	Interpretation	147
7.1	Summary and Analysis	148
7.2	Conclusion	165
7.3	Revisited: Why Utopianism (of Care)?	166
	Glossary	169
	Acknowledgements	175
	Bibliography	177