

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	7
Introduction	9

1 exegi monumentum

Texts, monuments and the desire for immortality	19
ANDREW HUI

“Plunging into nothingness”: The politics of cultural memory	35
ALEIDA ASSMANN

A monumental inscription: The transcultural heritage of Swift’s epitaph	51
PÉTER DÁVIDHÁZI

Monuments and memorials: Byron and Wordsworth in post-Napoleonic Switzerland	71
PATRICK VINCENT

2 questioning canon politics

“Monumental mockery”: Does a three-text edition of Hamlet threaten the play’s canonicity?	85
ANN THOMPSON

How the West was won: J.M. Coetzee and postcolonial canons	99
LILY SAINT

“We the people”: The U.S. Government’s recent recruitment of literature for nation building	111
LISBETH FUISZ

3 negotiating the past – imagining the future

Under the blue bottle: Habsburg nostalgia in post-Soviet L’viv	125
IHOR JUNYK

Monumentalizing the Twin Towers: Memory and garbage in the global city	139
CHRISTOPH LINDNER

Hurricane Katrina and the arts of remembrance	155
BENJAMIN MORRIS

Revisiting Martyrs’ Square ... again: Absence and presence in cultural memory	169
NOUR DADOS

4 reterritorialization

The burden of the moment: Photography’s inherent monumentalizing effect	185
PETER BURLEIGH

Coyote in the land of culture industry: Robert Crumb and popular cultural memory	197
NICOLA GLAUBITZ

Canons, orthodoxies, ghosts and dead statues	209
DAVID MORLEY

Contributors	223
--------------------	-----