

Contents

Foreword	9
Beyond the Academic and Intellectual Worlds	11
Arendt's Concept of Personality	12
The Change of Perspective from the Modern Subject to the Inter-subjects in the In-between	15
The Discursive Method and its Poetic Thought	18
The Radicality of their Thinking and the Role of Emotions	23
The Non-intellectual	24

When Politics Vanishes

1. Dogville – Eight Steps to Hell. A film review	29
Dogville	30
Steps of Humiliation	32
The Fire of Love and Active Charity	35
Politics, Public Friendship and Political Institutions	37
2. Phantasies of Omnipotence	41
A Controversy about the Persistence of the Pre-social in Humans	42
Why Cross the Border?	43
How to Cross the Border	46
The Banality of Evil	47
3. The Temptations of Lying	51
Arendt's Position on Truth and Lies	53
The New So-called "Post-truth" Phenomenon with Fake News, Conspiracy Theories and Populist Propaganda	56
The Conditions that Led to "Post-truth" in Contrast to the Political Lie that Arendt Faced in Her Time	57

4. “Ice cold”. The Way to Totalitarianism	63
The Loss of Experience and the World	65
Ideology and Terror	69
Cool Conduct: the Culture of Distance	71
5. Truth and Post-totalitarian Narratives	75
Defence against Guilt	76
The Struggle of the Second Generation to Name the Crime and the Perpetrators and to be Remembered	80
The Disappearance of the Perpetrators among the Third Generation	84
Conclusion	85

The Call of Responsibility

6. Who is Capable of Acting? Some Thoughts on the Importance of Personality	89
Non-action and the Dilemma of Action in the Contemporary World	89
What is the Difference Between a “Person” and an “Individual”?	93
What Does it Mean to Adopt a Position and to Judge?	96
7. The Virtù of the Statesman – Willy Brandt	101
Brandt’s Image of Man and Society	102
Brandt’s Leadership Qualities	106
Brandt’s Peace Policy	108
8. When Telling the Truth Demands Courage	113
To Live in the Truth	113
Telling the True Story	119
9. Sustainability – The Power of the ‘Unreasonable’	127
The foundations of a new economy	128
The example of Instituto Ethos and social business	132
Freedom and responsibility	139
Leadership and the power of the unreasonable	143

Images and Emotions

10. Horror and Laughter – Arendt, Tabori, Borowski	151
Thinking poetically	152
Being addressed by events, the intersubjective position of the citizen and the basis for an experience perspective	154
The role of engagement and emotions in the process of understanding and the correspondence between contents and speech	159
The awareness that what is really at stake cannot be put into words	161
11. Cause or Intention? Justifying Crime	163
Because or in order to	164
Intention and justification	165
Pathologies in modernity	174
The end of the dichotomy	178
12. Facing War Arendt and Habermas	181
Arendt's Jewish War	182
Habermas looks at Ukraine	185
Violence and power	187
Life	192

Federations

13. Federalism – A Hidden Treasure	197
Remember Europe	198
Arendt's hidden dialogue with integral federalism	205
The traps of the nation-state	207
The failure of federal plans and the consequences	216
Conclusion	226
14. Bridge and Border – Queering Europe	229
Making an image / a concept – deconstructing the concept	230
Is there a federalist mindset?	232
Queering Europe	238
15. Rights Without Space – The Existence of a Transnational Minority	243
The persecution of a minority	243
Europe reacts	246
Contradiction of formal justice and structural violence	248

Empowerment	250
New places	252
16. Europe and its Refugees: Arendt on the Politicization of Minorities	255
I.	256
II.	258

From Plurality to Cosmos

17. Elements of Cosmopolitanism – and its Handicaps	269
Plurality and the Retreat into Oneself	270
Plurality of Judgement and the Search for Banisters	274
Action / Councils – and the Problem of Persistence	275
Federations – and the Underestimation of Institutions	279
Nature – Following the Tradition of Dominance and Exploitation	282
18. Desert and Oasis: Arendt Reads Stifter	285
Arendt's Stifter	287
Stifter's Sense of Reality	291
Resonances	296
What Nature?	303
Corporeal, Desert / Oasis	307
19. Overcoming Inhuman Perspectives on Nature	311
Nature as an Acting Subject – Adalbert Stifter	312
Nature as Part of an Existential Space – René Char	315
Phenomenology of Landscape – François Jullien	319
20. The Encounter of republic and cosmos: Arendt and Humboldt	323
Arendt – Nature as a Process	325
Humboldt – Nature as an Organism	331
Cosmos and Republic as a Thinking Space	334
Conclusion	337