

Table of Contents

Introduction | 7

1 Definition and Reinterpretation of Complicity – from Criminal Law to Media Discourse | 15

- 1.1 Criminal Law | 19
- 1.2 Films and Literature: Bonnie and Clyde (1967) (USA, Dir.: Arthur Penn), Komplizinnen (1987) (Germany, Dir.: Margit Czenki) and Les Complices (Georges Simenon, 1956) | 29
- 1.3 Illegality and Innovation | 42

2 Everyday: Changed Social and Political Figures | 57

- 2.1 From the Collective to the Connective | 58
- 2.2 Situational Socialities: The Unforeseen Voting Out of a Politician | 64
- 2.3 Friendship in Relation to Complicity | 68

3 Work: Transformed Work Environments | 81

- 3.1 Failed Complicities (By Example of Radical Innovation) | 88
- 3.2 Complicity in Relation to Teams, Alliances, Networks and other Pacts, such as the Mafia | 96
- 3.3 Life Tactics and Survival Tactics | 107

4 Authorship: Complicit Collectivity | 117

- 4.1 Conspiratorial Artist-Accomplices: Konspirative KüchenKonzerte, Situationists, geheimagentur, Beat Bag Bohemia | 125

- 4.2 A New Form of Collectivity:
The Project NAME readymade by Janez Janša | 138
- 4.3 Complicitous Authorship (with the Audience) | 143

5 The Research Film Komplizenschaften (2007)
(Switzerland, Dir.: Barbara Weber/Gesa Ziemer) | 151

6 Instead of a Summary:

15 Indicators of Complicity | 153

- 6.1 Playfully: 15 Indicators | 153
- 6.2 Remarks on the Indicators | 154
- 6.3 Surprising (Urban) Public Spheres:
Art in Complicity with Not-Art | 158

Bibliography | 169