

Contents

Acknowledgements 9

List of Abbreviations 11

Abstract 13

CHAPTER ONE: Introduction 15

 I-1- Operationalization of key concepts 17

 I-1-1- Democracy 17

 I-1-2- Whiteness 20

 I-1-3- Homosexuality 24

 I-1-4- Relation 26

 I-2- Literature review 29

 I-2-1- On South African literature 29

 I-2-2- On the narratives selected 37

 I-2-3- On key concepts of the topic 41

 I-3- Research hypothesis and research questions 44

 I-4- Theory and methodology 45

 I-5- Structure of the work 50

CHAPTER TWO: Form and Signification: Idiosyncrasy of South African Post-Apartheid Narrative 53

 II-1- Character: an incursion into the idiosyncrasy of South African post-apartheid narrative 56

 II-1-1- Distribution of the characters in post-apartheid narrative 57

 II-1-2- Interior life prompting characters to performance 67

 II-2- Spatialization in post-apartheid narrative as a deconstruction of post-apartheid South Africa 79

 II-2-1- Fictional post-apartheid South Africa as a transposition of modern (democratic) South Africa 81

 II-2-2- Johannesburg in post-apartheid narrative: a cue toward Relation? 85

II-3- From fictional to autobiographic narrative	91
II-3-1- Memoirs of a Born Free as a tangible attempt to embody "Project Infinity"	92
II-3-2- Perceptions of whiteness (white race), homosexuality and democracy as obstacle to Relation	97

CHAPTER THREE: South African post-apartheid Hegemony. Discourse as Negation of Relation and Social Representations

III-1- Discourse and Relation : theoretical and historical springs of South African post-apartheid hegemony	101
III-1-1- Discourse	103
III-1-2- Relation as diffuser of hegemony	107
III-2- Roots of the portrayed post-apartheid hegemony	111
III-2-1- Portrayed post-apartheid South Africa as embodiment of discourse	111
III-2-2- Symbolic resources of Johannesburg and embodiment of discourse in portrayed post-apartheid South Africa	114
III-2-3- Obstacles to the embodiment of Relation : authenticity, transparency, racism in reverse	120
III-3- How do social representations relate to discourse and Relation ?	128
III-3-1- Manifestations of social representations through ideology and common sense	131
III-3-2- Social representations and the fictional narrative	135

CHAPTER FOUR: Extricating Democracy, Whiteness, and Homosexuality from Social Representations for the Embodiment of Relation in post-apartheid Narrative

IV-1- Post-apartheid hegemony as shaped by the perceptions of homosexuality in The Quiet Violence of Dreams	140
IV-1-1- Social exclusion	142
IV-1-2- Social antagonism	148
IV-2- Post-apartheid hegemony as shaped by the perceptions of whiteness in Coconut	153
IV-2-1- Multiplication of misunderstandings in the portrayed post-apartheid society ..	157
IV-2-2- Whiteness desired by the victim	167
IV-3- Post-apartheid hegemony as shaped by the perceptions of democracy in Dog Eat Dog and Memoirs of a Born Free	171
IV-3- 1- Perpetual state of euphoria in substitution of a truly and inclusive democracy	176
IV-3- 2- Perceptions of democracy and legitimization of fundamentalisms and hegemony	184

CHAPTER FIVE: Relation as aesthetics Intervention of Post-Apartheid Narrative for a truly and inclusive (profane) Democracy

V-1- Figures of Relation in the post-apartheid narrative	196
V-1-1- Polyphony of the post-apartheid narrative "surface"	201

V-1-2- Multi-perspectivity of the post-apartheid narrative as a metaphor of a profane and inclusive democracy	208
V-1-3- Hybridity/fluidity of the character and space	211
V-2- Stakes of Relation in post-apartheid narrative	221
V-2-1- Alleviation of rigid barriers curbing mutual improvement	224
V-2-2- Enforcement of autonomy and culture of “perpetual peace”	231
V-3- Challenges of Relation for post-apartheid South Africa to come	235
V-3-1- Resistance from conservative logics	236
V-3-2- Utopian and chaotic nature of Relation	242
 CHAPTER SIX: Conclusion. Toward Post-Apartheid Criticism	 247
 Works Cited	 263
Primary Sources	263
Secondary Sources	263
A / Narratives, Plays and Poetry	263
B / Works on South Africa and South African Literature	264
C / Works on Literary Theory	265
D / Theoretical works	267
E / Articles	272
F / Dissertations Consulted	276
G / Internet Sources	276

