Traces of Aging

Old Age and Memory in Contemporary Narrative

[transcript]

We would like to thank the members of the research project New Critical Approaches to the Trace and the Application to Recent Literature in English (FFI2013-44154-P) and, in particular, its leading researcher Rosario Arias, for stimulating this research. We extend our sincere gratitude to Heike Hartung, Ulla Kriebeneegg and Roberta Maierhofer for their enthusiasm for and commitment to this study. We express our thanks also to Ángeles de la Concha and Teresa Gibert for reading and commenting on early drafts of this book, and to Ellison Moorehead for the time taken to revise the text.

The publication of this volume has been supported by the University of Graz and the Spanish Ministry of Economy and Competitiveness.

This volume results from the collaboration of the Center for Inter-American Studies (University of Graz), the European Network in Aging Studies (ENAS) and the research project New Critical Approaches to the Trace and the Application to Recent Literature in English (FFI2013-44154-P).
