

Contents

Introduction

1. The Future of Modernist Housing
Barbara Engel, Nikolas Rogge	11

International Experiences and Practices on Prefabricated Panel Buildings and Their Urban Environments

Housing Typologies and Urban Environment

2. Understanding the Origin, Trajectories of Change, and Future Prospects for Large Housing Estates in Europe
Daniel Baldwin Hess, Tiit Tammaru, and Maarten van Ham	25
3. Introduction to the System of Soviet Mass Housing. Type Design, Typification and Typology
Philipp Meuser	49
4. Maintaining Mass Housing: Methodology of Research and Comparative Perspective
Daria Volkova	75
5. Non-Capital Renovation—Urban Tissue Morphotypes and Evaluation of Potential of Intensive Development: Saint Petersburg as Case Study
Gavriil Malyshev, Yana Golubeva, Lyubov Krutenko, Gulnaz Nizamutdinova, Viktor Korotych, and Daniil Veretennikov	91

Citizens and Neighborhood

6. Large Housing Estates: A Place to Call “Home”
Virág Molnár 121
7. Images and Identities of the Post-Socialist Housing Estates in Ukraine vs. Jane Jacobs’s *The Death and Life of Great American Cities
Oksana Chabanyuk 141
8. Perceptions and Constructed Marginality in Soviet and Post-Soviet Large Housing Estates: The Case of Saint Petersburg, Russia
Ekaterina Korableva and Elvira Gizatullina 157
9. Collective Housing Complexes of Socialist Yugoslavia: The Development of Living Standards and the Strengthening of Communities
Violeta Stefanović 169
10. Challenge of Demographic Change – Recognizing General and Site-Specific Aspects in Large Housing Estates
Nilsson Samuelsson 185

Economy and Policies

11. Innovation in Housing: Decarbonization in Latvia
Knut Höller 201
12. Property Relationships and Post-Soviet Urban Planning: Three Critical Cases
Alexander Mikhailov and Marianna Shkurko 217
13. Strategies for Complex Transformation in Vilnius
Rūta Matonienė 233
14. Reimagining Housing Estates and the Nexus of Planning and Policy
Sasha Tsenkova 243

Transformation of Large Housing Settlements in Russia and Ukraine

15. Irkutsk Akademgorodok District—Principles for the Development of Spatial Qualities
Lyudmila Kozlova, Anastasia Malko, and Valery Kozlov	263
16. The Future of the New Past: Changes in Public Spaces in the Novo-melnikovo District in Irkutsk
Maria Tumureeva, Ekaterina Gladkova, and Valery Kozlov	281
17. The Present State and Perspectives of Development of Cheryomushki in Krasnoyarsk
Klavdiia Kamalova and Ekaterina Kirichenko	297
18. Development of Mass Housing Districts in the Second Half of the Twentieth Century: Cheryomushki and Tairovo in Odessa
Olga Savytska and Nadiia Dmytryk	305
Contributors	323

