Acknowledgements

This book would not exist without the help of countless people to whom I am forever grateful.

First and foremost, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Professor Dr. Susanne Bach from the University of Kassel. You always go above and beyond for your students, and I could not have wished for a better supervisor. Thank you!

I am also indebted to my family, particularly my parents, who gave me the opportunity to pursue this research. Mum, you instilled the love for reading in me! And Dad, I know, English Literature is not your area of interest but thank you for the analytical parts of my brain!

My warmest thanks goes to my siblings and my grandparents, who spent hours on the phone to keep me (mostly) sane and who patiently helped untie the knots in my brain, whenever I hit a wall.

Special honours go to my friend KD, who faithfully supplied the chocolate-fuel that kept me going, and to EL, my 3,2,1 life coach.

Finally, I would also like to thank the team at transcript Verlag for guiding me through the publishing process, and particularly my project manager, Luisa Bott, who never tired of answering my countless questions.
