

Acknowledgements

I am grateful to several people who helped me through this journey and successfully write this monograph.

First, I am deeply grateful to my doctoral thesis supervisors, Ludwig Holtmeier and Claudio Bacciagaluppi. Ludwig Holtmeier has been my teacher and mentor. His knowledge of music theory and understanding of historically informed theories provided me with many answers to the questions that arose during this journey. Claudio Bacciagaluppi has followed me every step of this journey. His long experience in archival research helped me navigate my way through stacks of documents and other sources. In addition, his patience and support have been crucial to the realization of this work.

Giorgio Sanguinetti was one of my first supporters at the beginning of my studies and the first Maestro who taught me partimento.

HKB's "Neapolitan canon" team: Martin Skamletz, Giulia Giovani, Michael Lehner and Stephan Zirwes. I am grateful for our exchange of ideas and knowledge and for allowing me to work with you in such a stimulating environment.

Rosa Cafiero and Felix Diergarten for our stimulating conversations and for answering my questions during the initial stages of my PhD.

Rosalba Agresta, Ewald Demeyere and Peter Van Tour for helping me find some lost manuscripts.

Benjamin Ory and Bill Bradley for helping me with thorough proofreading.

And all the friends and colleagues I met along the way.
