

Contents

---

Preface
Stephanie LeMenager	7
Introduction
The Editors	13
Whaling Wives, Life Writing, and Sentimental Extraction in the 19th Century Pacific
Katharina Fackler	23
Ecologies of Docility and Control: Environmental Fantasy and Extractive Economy at a Maryland Girls Boarding School, 1834–1868
Sophie Hess	47
The Melancholy of Extraction: Settler Sentimentality in Canada's Ahistorical Era of Economic Reconciliation
Amy Fung	65
"Mute Endurance": Precarious Planting and Affective Ecologies in Native American Novels
Gesa Mackenthun	89
Pains, Planes, and Automobiles: Extractivist Nostalgia in Mad Men
Verena Wurth	111
Feeling Senti-metal: Frontier Nostalgia, Mining Masculinity &amp; Corporate Landscapes in the U.S. American Reality TV Series Gold Rush
Brian James Leech	137

Sentimentality, Sacrifice, and Oil: Reckoning with Offshore Extractive Trauma Katie Ritson .....	163
On Some Absent Presences of Nuclear Extractivism: Retrofuturist Aesthetics and Fallout 4 Kylie Crane .....	185
“All of That Wealth Underneath”: How the Logic of Extraction Blocks Discourses of Sustainability in the U.S. Heike Paul .....	203
“Lots of Troubling Ideologies”: A Conversation with Writer Jennifer Haigh about Region, Extractivism, and Nostalgia Heike Paul and Jennifer Haigh .....	233
“This Is Our Barn”: Agrarian Sentimentality and the Fracking Formula in Promised Land Axelle Germanaz and Sarah Marak .....	243
A Conversation with Cara Daggett about Affect, Sentimentality, and Extractivism Axelle Germanaz, Daniela Gutiérrez Fuentes, and Cara Daggett .....	265
Oil Ancestors: Relating to Petroleum as Kin Fereshteh Toosi .....	281
Contributors .....	297