

Content

- Introduction | README 7
- Spotlight 13
 - Let’s ask more of AI 13
 - The power of cities 19
 - Rethinking digital ads 24
- Is it safe? 29
 - Understand the issue: Privacy and security 29
 - 23 reasons not to reveal your DNA 31
 - In defense of anonymity 35
 - Ransomware payments add up 37
 - Coordinating complaints for data privacy in Europe 39
 - Your mobile apps are tracking you 40
- How open is it? 43
 - Understand the issue: Openness 43
 - Show me my data, and I’ll tell you who I am 45
 - Internet slowdowns are the new shutdowns 48
 - Taxing social media in Africa 51
 - Tracking China’s censorship of news on WeChat 54
 - Inside Germany’s crackdown on hate speech 55
 - Wikidata gives wings to open knowledge 57
 - “Deepfakes” are here, now what? 59
- Who is welcome? 63
 - Understand the issue: Digital inclusion 63
 - Recognizing the bias of artificial intelligence 65

More than half of the world is online, but ...	67
Technology's inhumane underbelly	68
A global push to identify everyone, digitally	70
Tech employees power up	72
Women journalists feel the brunt of online harassment	75
Codes of Conduct now guide open source communities	77
The world's slowest internet is the least affordable	79
Who can succeed?	81
Understand the issue: Web literacy	81
Sex education in the digital age	83
Who babysits your children's data?	85
Decoding images of war in Syria	87
The challenge of democracy in the digital era	89
Spot the surveillance with virtual reality	92
Breaking free of the addiction machine	93
Who controls it?	97
Understand the issue: Decentralization	97
When a hurricane zaps the internet	99
The new investors in underwater sea cables	102
What if Facebook were owned by its users?	104
How do the biggest internet companies make money?	106
An open source alternative for "the cloud"	108
Participate	113
Feedback	117