

LIST OF FIGURES

- Figure 1: Numbers of Suicide Attacks in Central Asia | 20
- Figure 2: Repression-radicalization Hypothesis | 23
- Figure 3: Vicious-circle Hypothesis | 26
- Figure 4: Percentages of Muslims Identifying with a Sufi Order | 63
- Figure 5: Percentage of Muslims Supporting Folk Islam | 67
- Figure 6: Quran Reading by Central Asian Muslims | 78
- Figure 7: Approval for Terrorist Attacks Compared to Support for Sharia | 84
- Figure 8: Attitudes towards Political Islam among Central Asian Muslims | 89
- Figure 9: Relationship between Religion and Modernity | 98
- Figure 10: Preference for Democracy or a Powerful Leader | 163
- Figure 11: Frequency of Prayers and Visitation of Religious Services | 234
- Figure 12: Perception of Religious Policies by Central Asian Muslims | 234
- Figure 13: Different Religious Groups Compete for Influence | 271
- Figure 14: Unofficial Islam Supercedes Official Islam | 272
- Figure 15: Arbitrary Arrests Lead to Protest | 274
- Figure 16: Clouds of Protestors Gather | 275
- Figure 17: Political Islam's Share of Unofficial Islam | 275
- Figure 18: Radicalized Detainees Released as Jihadists | 276
- Figure 20: No Detentions and No Protests | 281
- Figure 21: Detentions and Protests | 281
- Figure 22: Protestors, Jihadists and Casualties | 282
- Figure 23: Simulation Results | 289