

Contents

List of Illustrations 9

Preface..... 11

Introduction 17

PART I – ART WORLD

Introduction to Part I: Art World 45

Chapter 1: Ensemble: William Forsythe & Team 47

1.1 William Forsythe 48

1.2 Teamwork 57

Chapter 2: The Institutions of Ballett Frankfurt & The Forsythe Company 65

2.1 Shifting Institutions 67

2.2 The “Givens” 70

2.3 Architecture and Stages 73

2.4 Duo’s Setting and Music 78

Chapter 3: The Dancers 85

3.1 Frankfurt am Main 85

3.2 The Dancers’ Working Conditions 87

3.3 Transnational Careers 91

3.4 The Dancers’ Occupational Culture 97

3.5 Duo Dancers..... 102

Chapter 4: The Dancers’ Practices 107

4.1 Seasonal Rhythms 109

4.2 Training 110

4.3	Rehearsal	113
4.4	Performance	114
4.5	Creation	115
4.6	Touring	118

Chapter 5: Duo's Art World	121
5.1 Touring	122
5.2 Reconstructive Chronology of Duo Performances	124

PART II – MOVEMENT

Introduction to Part II: Movement	133
--	------------

Chapter 6: The Movement of Showerhead	137
6.1 Épaulement	140
6.2 Residual Movement	143
6.3 Cultivating Sensation	150

Chapter 7: Movement Material & Relations	159
7.1 Movement "Material"	159
7.2 Erin Manning: "Relational Movement"	163

Chapter 8: Entrainment	171
8.1 Synchronizing the First Step of Duo	172
8.2 The Scientific Discourse of Entrainment	176
8.3 The Conventions of Entrainment in Ballet	178
8.4 The Dancers' Entrainment	182

Chapter 9: Movement Profile of Duo	187
9.1 Core Movement Values	189
9.2 Charting the History of Duo	194

PART III – CREATION

Introduction to Part III: Creation	213
---	------------

Chapter 10: Creating Duo (1996)	221
10.1 Sources and Methods for Studying the Creation of Duo	223
10.2 Between Dancers and Choreographers	225
10.3 Marion/Marion (1991)	227
10.4 The Chronology of Making Duo	228
10.5 Analysis	260

Chapter 11: Re-Creating Duo (1996–2016) 265

11.1 Learning Duo in the Ballett Frankfurt 268

11.2 Reconstructing Duo in The Forsythe Company 275

11.3 Becoming DUO2015 280

Conclusion: Choreography as Creative Organization 289

Impact and Limits of the Study, Further Work 294

Bibliography 299

Appendix 317

