

About the Authors

Ekrem Yasar Akçay is Asst. Prof. Dr. and head of the Department of International Relations of Hakkari University. He obtained his PhD from the Institute of Social Sciences at Ankara University and has been a visiting scholar at Humboldt University, Berlin and Wrocław University. His most recent book Soğuk Savaş Döneminde Avrupa: Temel Konular Üzerinden Avrupa'nın Dönüşümünü Anlamak was published in September 2017 by Kriter Publishing. e-mail: ekremyasarakcay@hakkari.edu.tr.

Mirlinda Batalli Prof. Dr. sc. Mirlinda Batalli is Professor of Administrative Law and Administrative Procedure in the Law Faculty of Prishtina University in Kosovo. Her professional career and research is mostly focused on reform in public administration, particularly on the impact of ICTs and several dimensions of computerised administration in the life of citizens, in order to provide more efficient, effective, qualitative, accountable and lower-cost services. She is the author of several articles on the field of public administration and e-administration published inside and outside Kosovo. e-mail: mirlindabatalli@gmail.com.

Orion Garo is a business instructor and independent researcher from Albania, and a PhD candidate at Aleksandër Moisiu University, Durrës. His dissertation thesis is in the area of labour and education economics, and concerns the wage gap between workforce participants with secondary education and those with tertiary education. His research mainly focuses on labour markets, particularly on wages. His latest work is Garo (2016) Higher education as a direct contributor to lifetime periodic earnings. e-mail: oriongaro@yahoo.com.

Flamur Hyseni is PhD candidate and Lecturer in the Faculty of Law of the University of Prishtina, Kosovë. e-mail: flamur.hyseni@uni-pr.edu.

Vjosa Osmani-Sadriu Dr. sc. is a lecturer in international law courses at the University of Prishtina as well as a Visiting Professor at the University of Pittsburgh School of Law. Her work and research is mostly focused on issues related to international commercial law, international sales law, international protection of property rights, the influence of international instruments on domestic legislation and treaty succession under international law. Dr. Osmani is also a Parliamentarian, serving her third mandate in Kosovo's national Parliament, and chairs its Foreign Affairs Committee. She also works on topics such as parliamentary diplomacy, issues of statehood and state recognition under international law. e-mail: vjosao@yahoo.com.

Lidija Pejović is a member of the Executive Board of Unija Slobodnih Sindikata Crne Gore – the Union of Free Trade Unions of Montenegro.

Anna Plachkova is a doctor of political science from the University of Sofia 'St. Kliment Ohridski'. Her main research interests are in the field of the Europeanisation of member states and candidate states, as well as democratisation and the enlargement process of the European Union through the application of conditionality. She recently defended her PhD dissertation: Plachkova (2018) The Potential of the EU for Democratisation in Countries Applying for Membership: Accumulated Experience and Perspectives: Sofia University.

Ariana Qosaj-Mustafa is Senior Analyst and Programme Director of KIPRED – a think tank focusing on the rule of law, gender-based violence and human rights issues. She is a current board member and 2012-2016 Chair of the Kosovo Women’s Network. She holds an MSc in Gender, Development and Globalisation from the London School of Economics and Political Science and is a PhD candidate in the Law Faculty of ‘Iustinianus Primus’ in Skopje. e-mail: ari.qosaj-mustafa@gmail.com.

Christophe Solioz is an author and political commentator, as well as philosophy and German literature professor at the Collège de Genève. He is also co-director, with Wolfgang Petritsch of the series Southeast European Integration Perspectives at the Nomos publishing house. e-mail: csolioz@icloud.com.

Muhamet Vokrri is a PhD candidate in the Associate Constitutional and Administrative Department, Law Faculty of Pristina University. He is the author of several articles in the field of constitutional and labour law, published both inside and outside Kosovo. e-mail: muhamet.vokrri@gmail.com; muhamet.vokrri@uni-pr.edu.