

Contents

Introduction	9
1.1 Wars of words and images – The effectualness of pictures and stories of war and their strategic exploitation by conflict parties	9
1.2 Research focus, research questions and core thesis	15
1.3 Overview – Thesis outline	17
Conceptualization	19
2.1 Conceptualizing “external communication”	19
2.2 Conceptualizations of strategies of external communication	20
Theory – Explaining the selection of strategies of external communication	33
3.1 Theoretical expectations of established theories	33
3.2 The conflict structure as explanation for the selection of strategies of external communication	35
3.3 Interests	43
3.4 Opportunities	53
3.5 Relations of the pathways, variation across time and possible alternative explanations	82
Case selection, research design & methodology	87
4.1 The case of the conflict in Israel and Palestine	87
4.2 Identifying strategies of external communication	97
4.3 Explaining the selection of external communication strategies	112

Empirics I – Identifying strategies of external communication in the conflict in Israel and Palestine

Empirics I – Identifying strategies of external communication in the conflict in Israel and Palestine	119
5.1 Results of the quantifying qualitative content analysis	120
5.2 Robustness check – Results of the automated quantitative large-scale content analysis and the semi-structured interviews	124

Empirics II – The impact of the operational environment on the selection of the strategy of external communication in the conflict in Israel and Palestine

Empirics II – Interests	139
6.1 General pattern – Interests resulting from the distribution of capabilities	141
6.2 Detailed example: Interests resulting from the distribution of economic & financial capabilities	153
6.3 Detailed example: Interests resulting from the distribution of social/institutional capabilities	161

Empirics II – Opportunities	169
7.1 Opportunities to convince	170
7.2 Opportunities to present – Overview	177
7.3 Opportunities to present – The impact of the distribution of military capabilities	181
7.4 Opportunities to present – The impact of the distribution of economic & financial capabilities	194
7.5 Opportunities to present – The impact of the distribution of social/institutional capabilities	205
7.6 Identifying the most successful strategy by controlling for efficiency	214

Empirics II – Crisis communication and alternative explanations	225
8.1 Routine vs. crisis communication	226
8.2 Alternative explanations	229

Conclusions	235
9.1 Summary	235
9.2 Theoretical core contributions	238

9.3	Limitations and proposals for future research:
	Thinking beyond the conflict in Israel and Palestine	238
9.4	Practical recommendations	243

Literature and sources	251
10.1 Academic literature	251
10.2 Interviews	283
10.3 Software	284
10.4 News articles, magazines and blogs	284
10.5 Conference Documents, legislative documents and (other) primary sources	296
10.6 Statistics and data bases	303
10.7 Sources of maps	306
10.8 List of figures	307
10.9 List of tables	308
10.10 Online annex	309

