

Contents

| | |
|--|-----|
| Preface | 7 |
| Introduction: Fantasy between Text and Image | |
| Neomedieval Patterns of Visualization | |
| Hans Rudolf Velten | 9 |
| Aesthetics without Pictures? | |
| (Literary) Book Illustration between High and Low Culture | |
| Mirja Beck | 23 |
| The Visual Realization of Fantastic Worlds in Book Cover Design | |
| Melanie Korte | 37 |
| Beautiful and Sublime – and Never Mind the Pointed Ears | |
| Visualising the Elves throughout the Centuries | |
| Thomas Honegger | 51 |
| Visualizing the Never-Seen | |
| Models of Time, Space and History in Fantasy Cartography | |
| Judith Klinger | 81 |
| The Fantasy Novel as Commodity | |
| The Aesthetics of a Neomedieval Book Design | |
| Theresa Specht | 121 |
| Medievalist Aesthetics and Marketing Strategies | |
| Some Thoughts on Cover Design from the 1980s to the Present | |
| Miriam Strieder | 143 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| William Morris's Medievalist Visual Aesthetics and its Persistence in Fantasy | |
| Hans Rudolf Velten | 175 |
| Unicorns in Contemporary Popular Culture | |
| Joseph Imorde | 205 |
| Fantasy Medievalism | |
| On the Aesthetic of the Mythical | |
| Racha Kirakosian | 217 |
| Reception of Medieval Literature in Science Fiction Series | |
| Isabella Managò | 239 |
| Biobibliographical Information | 261 |