| STUDIO: | NOW something for the braver XXXX or perhaps madder type at St Moritz must be the most famous of winter visitor. The Cresta run/XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX XX toboggan run in the world. But it is not so exclusive as the jet set and aristocratic XXXXXXXX ^{legend} surrounding its name and St Moritz would suggest. If you have a hundred francs and plenty of nerve you can have five runs and then apply for membership of the St Moritz toboggan club. Only skeleton bobs are allowed on the run. Riders wear crash helmets, metal studded gloves and steer with metal shod XXXXX boots. The best riders go XXXXXX down the runs at over sixty miles per hour head first their noses with XXXXXX less than an inch above the ice. The famous bends in the track have their own evocative names. The shuttlecock probably being the most infamous. XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX XXXXXXXXXXXX Keith Cooper met two of the more senior members of the club..... and First ^{famous run} explains how the/run got its name. | |
