

Contents

List of Figures	9
List of Tables	11
Introduction	13
Research Question and Design	16
Overview of Contributions.....	19
The Pro-Refugee Mobilization of 2015/16	21
Research on Mobilization Effects in Today's Civic Landscape.....	24
Book Outline	28
Theoretical Framework	31
Local Civic Action Communities	31
Civil Society Literature on Mobilization Effects	38
Factors Driving Networking, Interaction, and Cooperation.....	44
Conclusion	51
Data and Methods	53
Overview	53
Systematic Case Selection and Case Description	55
Data Collection and Analysis	59
Ethical Considerations	63
Conclusion	64

Did it Stick? Where Pro-Refugee Communities did and did not Develop	65
Lauda: The Development and Survival of a Pro-Refugee Community	67
Loburg: The Development and Survival of a Pro-Refugee Community	83
Altenau: Missed Opportunities for Creating a Pro-Refugee Community	98
Neheim: Missed Opportunities for Creating a Pro-Refugee Community	111
Conclusion	122
Opportunities for Interaction and the Role of Brokers	125
Theoretical Framework: Local Brokers and Sustained Interaction	127
Empirical Analysis	133
Conclusion	152
Being Different. How Differences in Resources, Strategy, and Culture Challenge Community Building	155
Theoretical Framework: Resources, Strategies, and Cultures of Interaction	157
Empirical Analysis	163
Conclusion	178
Linking Social Capital as a Resource for Co-production and Community Building	183
Theoretical Framework: Linking Social Capital	185
Empirical Analysis	188
Conclusion	200
Conclusion	203
Overview	203
Conceptual and Empirical Contributions	206
Political and Societal Implications	211
Bibliography	215