

Contents

Preface	7
Introduction	11
Meinecke studies.....	14
Methodological principles	43
Structure of the book	46
1. The Ideal of a unity	47
Introduction	47
1.1 Nations, the national state and cosmopolitanism	53
1.2 The universal and the national	55
1.3 The reconciliation of cosmopolitanism and the national state?.....	68
1.4 The tradition of the ideal	75
Conclusion	78
2. Struggling with a world view	81
Introduction	81
2.1 Prelude	84
2.2 Staatsräson according to Meinecke	87
State interest and an ideal of humanity	94
2.3 The tragic character of Meinecke's Staatsräson	98
3. A conscience akin to God	113
Introduction	113
3.1 Staatsräson as a 'solution'	114
3.2 The statesman's conscience	124
Conclusion	132
4. A world view in the making	135
Introduction	135
4.1 The individualizing view	139

4.2	Pietism and Neoplatonism	145
4.3	Reason and Unreason	151
4.4	Traditionalism and historicism	153
4.5	The prelude to Meinecke's historicism	157
4.6	Science or world view	162
	Conclusion	172
5.	Harmony regained	175
	Introduction	175
5.1	Polarities and harmony	180
5.2	Meinecke's Umdeutung of Goethe	192
5.3	Goethe and the daemonic	196
5.4	Harmony and dissonance	200
5.5	Meinecke and the crisis of historicism	204
	Conclusion	221
6.	The authority of the personality	225
	Introduction	225
6.1	A controversial study	231
6.2	A catastrophic synthesis	234
6.3	Nature, chance, fate	239
6.4	Kultur as cure	245
6.5	Apotheosis	252
	Conclusion	260
	Final conclusions	263
	Bibliography	271
	Index	296