

Contents

---

Acknowledgements ..... 7

Beginnings

1. Prologue: From Local to Global, From Courtesy to Civility ..... 11

2. The Inception of Global Civility
Henry Blount's A Voyage into the Levant (1636) ..... 21

Enlightened Cosmopolitanism and the Practice of Global Civility

3. Global Civility and Shipwreck
George Keate's Account of the Pelew Islands (1788) ..... 61

4. Global Civility on the Desert Route to India
Henry Abbott's A Trip ...Across the Grand Desart of Arabia (1789) ..... 97

Discursive Changes within Global Civility

5. Two Views of Botany Bay:
George Barrington's An Impartial and Circumstantial Narrative (c. 1793-4) and
Mary Ann Parker's A Voyage Round the World (1795) ..... 137

6. The Attraction of Repulsion:
Charles Colville Frankland's Travels to and from Constantinople (1829) ..... 171

Transitions and Conclusions

7. From Representational Ambivalence to Colonialism
F.E. Maning's (fictional) Autobiography Old New Zealand (1863) .....	219
8. Epilogue: From Global Civility to Comparative Imperialisms? .....	257
Works Cited .....	259