

Contents

Figures	11
Introduction	15
Purpose	17
Methodology	17
Significance	19
Overview	20
1. Audiovisual Arts in the Post-Digital Age	25
Audiovisual Arts and Audiovisuology	25
Origins of the Term Post-Digital	28
Post-Digital Aesthetics and Condition	34
Post-Media, Post-Internet and New Aesthetic	37
Post-media	38
Post-internet	43
New aesthetic	45
Analogue Atoms + Digital Bits = Post-digital Hybridisation	46
Digital Art	49
Mapping the Post-Digital Aesthetics in Audiovisual Arts	53
On digital media	54
Within digital media	54
In-between digital and non-digital media	55
Off digital media	55
Summary	56

2. Post-Digital Aesthetics in Contemporary Audiovisual Arts	59
On Digital Media	60
The aesthetics of failures	60
The critical role of glitch	63
Summary	65
Within Digital Media	66
The aesthetics of saturation	66
Queering digital media	67
Summary	70
In-Between Digital and Non-Digital Media	70
The aesthetics of hybridisation	71
Beyond the screen	72
Summary	75
Off Digital Media	75
The aesthetics of repurposing	76
Neo-analogue turn as resistance	77
Materiality and the tangibility of film	78
Repurposing and resurrecting media	82
Analogue-digital media assemblages	83
Summary	85
Comparing the Post-Digital Aesthetics	86
3. Critical Making and Post-Digital Hybridisation in Audiovisual Arts	89
A Brief Introduction to Critical Making	90
Critical making as a process-oriented practice	91
Repoliticising Makers and Technology-Oriented Artists	91
Making through a hands-on approach	94
Critical Making and Post-Digital Art	95
Critically-made art	96
Post-digital hybridisation	97
Entanglement	98
Summary	100
4. Understanding the Post-Digital Condition Through Practice-Based
Research	103
Datox	103
The computational society	104
Electricity and non-human agency	105

Album and archive of electronics' noise	106
Live performance	108
Data overload recovery	109
On a Scroll Through the Cloud	109
The cloud materiality and its obfuscation	110
The normalisation of surveillance capitalism	112
Navigating the foggy environment of the cloud	114
Things I Do When I'm Bored	118
The corporate web and digital folklore	118
Vlogging because I'm so bored	119
I'm so bored so I decided to make a vlog	120
Boredom vlogging patterns	121
Let there be more boredom	123
Debris	123
An introduction to electronic waste	124
Computation and computational media	125
Digital media (im)materiality	127
The constellation of digital media materiality	127
Can you defeat planned obsolescence?	128
The detritus of digital media technologies	129
Deep Touch	131
Sensing and smartness devices	132
Nonsense apparatus	133
Rematerialising the invisible forces of big tech	134
All to Sand Returns	136
Speculations on future landscapes and contemporary anxieties	137
Repurposing analogue media and analogue-digital media hybrids	138
Environment and matter	140
Summary	141
Conclusion: Rethinking Post-Digital Audiovisual Arts	145
Acknowledgements	151
Appendix: List of the Series of Artworks	153
Datox	153
On a Scroll Through the Cloud	153
Things I Do When I'm Bored	154

Debris	154
Deep Touch	154
All to Sand Returns.....	155
Bibliography	157
Notes	169