

Contents

Acknowledgments	7
------------------------------	---

Introduction

Zsuzsa László	9
----------------------------	---

Collecting the Future

A Personal History of an Archive

Kristine Stiles	21
------------------------------	----

“Destroy, She Said”

The Archive between Archivo-Philia and Archivo-Phobia

Sven Spieker	35
---------------------------	----

Active Gaps and Absences in Artist Archives

Stano Filko and Dóra Maurer

Daniel Grúň	49
--------------------------	----

The New Sectarianism

A Manual for Art

David Crowley	67
----------------------------	----

Self-Historicization

Artist Archives in Eastern Europe

Zdenka Badovinac	81
-------------------------------	----

Collaborative Actions, Continued Omissions

Notes Toward a Feminist Revisiting of Yugoslav Collectives in the 1960s and 1970s: The Case of the OHO Group

Lina Džuverović 97

Expansive Underground

Artpool's Path from Self-Institutionalization to a Museum

Emese Kürti 115

The Alternative Official?

KwieKulik's Studio of Activities, Documentation and Propagation as a State-Financed Performative Archive under Real Socialism

Tomasz Zakuski 133

The Life and Afterlife of the Archive

Ewa Partum's and VALIE EXPORT's Archives

Karolina Majewska-Güde 151

artpool.hu: a user's guide

Remediation, Digitization and the Networked Art Archive

Roddy Hunter and Judit Bodor 171

Biographies 191