

Contents

Situating Global Art

An Introduction by the Editors 11

Epistemological Frameworks

Jacob Birken

Spectres of 1989: On some Misconceptions of the ‘Globality’ in and of Contemporary
Art 35

Andrew Stefan Weiner

The Scrim, the Pistol,
and the Lectern: Dis-
Situating the Global Contemporary 53

Voon Pow Bartlett

The Aesthetics of Irony
as a Form of Resistance:
Zhang Peili in “Harmonious Society, 天下無事” 63

Antigoni Memou

“A Collage of Globalization”
in Documenta11’s Exhibition Catalogue 75

Institutional Politics

Birgit Mersmann

Lacing Places: Situationist
Practices and Socio-Political Strategies in Korean
Urban Art Projects 91

Janna-Miri Redmann

Gulf Labor: The Boycott as Political Activism and Institutional Critique 111

Leah Gordon

*You Can’t Always Curate
Your Way Out!* Reflections
on the Ghetto Biennale 129

Abdellah Karroum

Generation 00:
The Artist as Citizen 155

Museological Narratives

Jelle Bouwhuis

How Far How Near:
A Global Assemblage
in the Modern Art
Museum 167

Annette Bhagwati

Of Maps, Nodes and Trajectories: Changing
Topologies in Transcultural
Curating 191

Barbara Lutz

Curating as Transcultural Practice. documenta 12
and the “Migration of Form” 213

Sarah Dornhof

Exhibiting Contemporary Moroccan Art: Situated Curatorial Narratives and Institutional Frames of Globalization 231

Practices of Self-Cultivation

Isabel Seliger

The Art of Globalization/
The Globalization of Art: Creating Transnational, Interethnic and Cross-Gender Identities in the 3D Work of Miao Xiaochun 255

Birgit Hopfener

Transculturally Entangled – Qiu Zhijie’s Concept of Total Art 275

Ronit Milano

Globalization as an Artistic Strategy: The Case of Takashi Murakami 289

Nanne Buurman

The Blind Spot of Global
Art? Hans Ulrich Obrist’s
Ways of Curating 301

Biographies 327

