Third edition of the ÉMILE AND ALINE MAYRISCH PRIZE in 2015

In close cooperation with ArcelorMittal, and under the patronage of the Minister for Cultural Affairs of the Grand-Duchy of Luxembourg, the non profit-making organization “Le Cercle des Amis de Colpach” governed by Luxembourg law, organizes every 4 years a contest for the award of the Émile and Aline Mayrisch Prize. The objective of this prize, which honours the memory of the former Arbed director general and of his spouse is to foster the “spirit of Colpach”, characterized by the openness to cultural currents and the promotion of the understanding between European peoples. It is endowed with the sum of 14.000 € and has been attributed for the first time in 2007 as an event of “Luxembourg and Greater Region, European Capital of Culture”.

The Émile and Aline Mayrisch Prize is open to researchers, students, journalists and other authors, residents of Germany, Belgium, France or Luxembourg and aged 24 and above. The works submitted to the contest will deal with research in the fields of history, politics, economy, social life and/or culture in the Franco-Belgo-German-Luxembourg area. They may also consist of contributions from the written press, radio and television, standing out for their pedagogical interest as regards the treatment of the above-mentioned themes.

The works will be submitted in German, French or English.

For this prize, non-published works as well as works published by the deadline that has been fixed for handing in the works to the jury will be given consideration. The deadline is February 15th 2015.

For further information, in particular about the contest rules, please visit the Web page www.colpach.lu or contact either Cornel.Meder@ci.culture.lu or Charles.Barthel@cere.etat.lu

With the treaty of Lisbon, the solidarity principle gained influence in EU primary law and serves as a structural principal of the European Union.

The book discusses the theoretical concepts of solidarity and applies them to the context of multilevel systems. The contributions focus on different policy fields, including economic policy, immigration and asylum policy, energy policy, structural funds, Common Foreign and Security Policy etc. The authors pursue different research questions and theoretical approaches as they represent different disciplines, such as economic science, European law and political science.
