

Acknowledgements

I would like to thank the German Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development (Bundesministerium für wirtschaftliche Zusammenarbeit und Entwicklung, BMZ), in particular Dr Gerhard Ressel, Eileen Schuldt and Dr Domenica Preysing (Division 113: Special Initiative on Training and Job Creation) for making the study on the causes of labor turnover and absenteeism in the Ethiopian textile industry possible. The findings from this study, which was carried out from 2020 to 2022, form the empirical basis for this book.

Furthermore, I would like to strongly thank all partners in the field who supported this volume, especially all interviewees: the workers (and former workers) in the Ethiopian apparel companies, their relatives, community members, human resources and company managers, the representatives of the industrial parks, stakeholders in the apparel sector, representatives of the German development cooperation, as well as the involved brokers and translators.

For their important support with the field access, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the representatives of the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) in Ethiopia. For his important inspirations I would particularly like to thank Prof Dr Reimer Gronemeyer, principal investigator of the research project. I owe a wonderful experience of cooperation to my colleagues in the project: Prof Dr Tesfaye Semela Kukem and Setisemhal Getachew Teshale (Hawassa University), Gifawosen Markos Mitta (Bonn/Wolkite University), and Hanna Rössner (Gießen/Kassel University).

I also gained important inspirations from discussions with informants, colleagues and friends, especially from Prof Dr Matthias Rompel (Regional Director East Africa & Horn of Africa of GIZ, Germany), Prof Dr Marian Burchardt and Dr Florian Stoll (Leipzig University, Germany), as well as Eshetu Tesfaye (Ayeto) (tour operator in Arba Minch, Ethiopia), and Johan Kotze (entrepreneur in Namibia). I owe them a great debt of gratitude. Others remain unnamed but not forgotten.

I would like to extend my sincere gratitude for the friendly cooperation to Linda Mönnikes at transcript publisher, Wolfgang Polkowski who did the setting and design of the book, and Pietro Sutera, who created an impressive photo documentation for the project. For supporting the open access publication of this volume, further thanks are due to the “Open Access Publication Fund” of the University Library of Justus Liebig University Gießen.

