

Contents

Introduction

Heike Paul and Sarah Pritz 9

I. Sentimental Leadership

“I was honestly just speaking as Robert”

New Forms of Sentimental Leadership in Contemporary German Politics

Julian Müller 29

Sentimental Authority

America’s National Poets Laureate

Harald Zapf 49

The Function of Tears in U.S. Politics

Fact and Fiction

Carmen Birkle 65

Balcony Scenes

The Balustrade as a Dispositif of Political Power

Jan-Henrik Witthaus 85

Back to the Future

State Transformation and Sentimental Repertoires of Belonging in Saudi Arabia

Antonia Thies 109

Impolite, Emotive Language and the Making of Us vs. Them
Responses to a United Thai Nation Party 2023 Election Campaign Video
Sawane T. Alexander and Duncan McCargo	133

II. The People's Feelings

Sentimental States of the Nation

Remembering Diana, Princess of Wales (and Shakespeare's Richard II)
Christian Krug	163

The Power of Sentimental Cinema and Sentimental Politics

Ava DuVernay's Selma (2014)
Elaine Roth	195

"The only thing that matters to her"

Artificial Intelligence and the Sentimentalization of Motherhood in M3GAN (2022)
Charleena Schweda	211

'Rally Around the Christmas Tree'

The Sentimental Politics of a Civil Religious Holiday
Sarah Marak and Heike Paul	235

Constructing Recognition, Mobilizing Sentiment

Lucila Quieto's Filiación (2013)
Anna Corrigan	251

United by Anger—Divided by Humor?

Staging Strategies of YouTube Creators in Negotiating whether the COVID-19 Pandemic is a Medical or Political Crisis
Vincent Steinbach	271

Music and the Politics of Belonging in Revolutionary Episodes

Egypt since 1952 from a Comparative Perspective
Thomas Demmelhuber	297

Weeping for Chairman Mao Zedong

Sentimental Politics of Tears in China in 1976

Marc Andre Matten 315

A Cultural Sociology of the Sentimental

The Example of 'Lost Places'

Sarah Pritz 339

Contributors

