

Acknowledgements

The University of Bern generously funded the Open Access of this volume. At LMU Munich, Eveline Dürr helped to secure proofreading funds from the Department of Social and Cultural Anthropology, which ensured professional language editing of all the contributions to the book. Roger Norum, alongside Martin Sökefeld one of the most multi-sided ethnographers we know, has contributed valuable comments on an earlier draft of the introductory chapter. We would also like to extend our gratitude to all the authors who spared time to contribute to this edited volume.
