

Contents

Introduction
Daniela Russ & James Stafford 7

Status and International Organizations

Status in Early Modern and Modern World Politics
Competition or Conflict?
Ramy Youssef 35

Network Power Europe and Competition at the UN Human Rights Council
Anatoly Boyashov 61

Social Mobility in the Global Order
Rising Powers and the Convertibility of Capitals
Katja Freistein & Thomas Müller 83

Knowledge, Ideology and Competition

The Civilizing Force of National Competition
U.S. Nationalist Reasoning in the Mid-to-Late Nineteenth Century
Johannes Nagel & Tobias Werron 107

‘Free Trade’ and the Varieties of Eighteenth-Century State Competition
James Stafford 133

The Development of Neoliberal Measures of Competitiveness
Dieter Plehwe	155
Competing Powers
Engineers, Energetic Productivism, and the End of Empires
Daniela Russ & Thomas Turnbull	183
Competition and Emergent Technologies
Diplomacy and Artificial Intelligence in Global Political Competition
Didzis Kļaviņš	213
Small, Smart, Powerful?
Small States and the Competition for Cybertech Superiority in the Digital Age
Madeleine Myatt	233
Between Strategic Autonomy and International Norm-setting
The EU's Emergent "Cyber-Sanctions" Regime
Yuliya Miadzvetskaya	261
Afterword
Competition During Covid-19
Heidi Tworek	289
About the Authors	301