

Contents

---

Introduction

Maximilian Hartmuth & Ayşe Dilsiz Hartmuth (University of Vienna) .....7

No news as good news?

Occupied Bosnia's Ottoman heritage in the Habsburg imperial imaginary ca. 1900
Maximilian Hartmuth (University of Vienna) ..... 15

Ottoman until proven otherwise

Mutations of the Behram-beg mosque in Tuzla, 1540–2021
Ajla Bajramović (University of Vienna) ..... 37

Monument preservation as an aspect of 20th century

Turkish-Hungarian relations

A case study on Gül Baba's Shrine
Gergő Máté Kovács (Gül Baba Heritage Foundation, Budapest University of Technology and Economics)..... 59

Scales of patrimonialization in late imperial Crimea

Between Bakhchisaray and Saint Petersburg
Anna Guboglo (University of Vienna) ..... 89

Amazing stories?

Crimean heritage and the reinvention of Ukrainian art history
Stefaniia Demchuk (Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv & Masaryk University, Brno) .....111

Between destruction, protection, and transformative re-creation
Muslim (Crimean Tatar and Ottoman) architectural heritage in Crimea
Nicole Kançal-Ferrari (Marmara University, Istanbul) .....	135
Approaches toward the Evkaf built heritage on British-ruled Cyprus
Reyhan Sabri (University of Sharjah) .....	175
Unmixing peoples, delineating properties
The legal regulation of waqf property in 19 th -century Serbia
Jelena Radovanović (University of Münster) .....	199
From Muslim piety to Turkish reason
Kemalist reinterpretations of the vakıf
Ayşe Dilsiz Hartmuth (University of Vienna) .....	223
Ottoman dīvān literature in the Turkish literary-historical canon
Ercan Akyol (University of Vienna) .....	245
Afterword: From patrimonialization to the post-imperial uncanny
Jeremy F. Walton (University of Rijeka) .....	271