

Contents

---

Abstract .....	7
Résumé .....	9
Acknowledgements .....	11
List of Figures .....	13
1. INTRODUCTION .....	15
Vignette 1: AfroEuropeans conference, July 2019 .....	15
Vignette 2: On life-story sharing at the AfroEuropeans conference, Lisbon, July 2019 .....	17
Problem statement and research questions .....	18
Life-stories and anthropology: Between method and object of study .....	26
Analytical approaches .....	41
Outline of chapters .....	60

PART I: DIASPORIC GENERATIONS

2. A history of African diaspora in Germany .....	67
The beginning and end of the first African diaspora (1880–1945) .....	67
African diaspora in West and East Germany (1945–1980) .....	76
3. Growing up in Frankfurt .....	91
Aminata Camara and Maya B. – Inspired by Black America .....	96
Lafia T. – Growing up in a white and female world .....	106
4. Family affairs – an intergenerational approach to diaspora .....	117
Lamine Camara – Aminata’s father .....	118
Forging a Black political consciousness and a West African identity .....	124

5. Racism and its intersection with class and gender .....	133
Learning to deal with it – racism and racialisation as part of the everyday .....	133
The eternal guest? .....	138
Conclusion to Part I .....	147

PART II: DIASPORIC TRAVEL

6. Maya B.: Building Afrodiasporic identity through travel .....	153
Travelling in Afroeuropa .....	153
Imagining Nigeria 2018 .....	159
7. Lafia T.: The long journey to her father’s land .....	169
Awakening interest in Senegal as a young adult .....	170
Roots travel to Senegal – May 2018 .....	174
8. Aminata Camara: Negotiating privilege, kinship and care in diasporic travel ...	185
Forging kinship in Ghana – the importance of trust and care .....	186
Acting respectable – caring and gendered division of labour .....	193
Conclusion to Part II .....	199

PART III: DIASPORIC ACTIVISM

9. Life storytelling as Black and feminist political practice .....	205
Origins and themes of life stories in Black movements .....	206
The Afro-German movement in the 1980s .....	208
10. Oxana Chi and Layla Zami: Connecting to global Blackness on the move .....	219
Life stories in the lives and works of two artist-activists .....	223
Practising community digitally and in mobility .....	228
Conclusion to Part III .....	237
CONCLUSION .....	241
Epilogue .....	251
Bibliography .....	255