

THANKS I

This book would not have been possible without the invaluable support of many people.

So, I would like to thank Maria Kluge for her help with reviewing and selecting entries from the meditation journals, as well as for funding the layout of the book in both German and English.

My sincere thanks also goes to the Edith-Haberland-Wagner Foundation, especially to the board of directors, Catherine Demeter and Martin Liebhäuser, for financing the Open Access e-book versions in German and English. This funding enables the present edition of this book to be made available free of charge to students, teaching staff and other interested parties on numerous online platforms at both national and international level.

I would especially like to thank Andrea Bistrich, who was a reliable and experienced editor, and also provided me with important factual details.

In this context I would also like to thank Kirstine Rasmussen for her helpful support in rounding off some of the text passages. Through her attentive review, these were given a final polish.

A big thank you also goes to Tanja Renz for the well thought-out and aesthetically beautiful design, which is sure to inspire many readers.

I would also like to thank Elisa Graf for her perceptive translation work which has ensured that the spirit of the original German book was fully conveyed in the English version.

Stefan Zinsbacher took great care in producing the photographs of the sketches, drawings and excerpts from the meditation journals. I extend a warm thank you to him as well.

Last but not least, I would like to express my gratitude to the editors Mike Sandbothe and Reyk Albrecht for including this book in their book series “Achtsamkeit – Bildung – Medien” [Mindfulness – Education – Media]. Also, my gratitude goes to transcript Verlag, especially Karin Werner, Roswitha Gost, Jennifer Niediek, Katharina Kotschurin and Dagmar Buchwald for their professional cooperation.
