The articles of this volume came to life during the conference “Global Crisis(es) between Image, Language and Time: On the Fantastic in Contemporary Films and Series” that was held in March 2022 at Bremen. Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, it was held in a hybrid format that allowed for fruitful conversations both in situ and via the internet, enabling our presenters and guests from different regions of the world to join us for wonderful talks and discussions. We would like to express our gratitude to everyone who participated and helped to make the conference and this book a success.

Both form part of the research project “Bild, Sprache, Demokratie: Zur Krise der res publica in zeitgenössischen Filmen und Serien der Romania” (‘Image, Language, Democracy: Crises of the res publica in contemporary films and series of the Romania’), funded by the Central Research Funding of the University of Bremen (2021-2024). We are very indebted to Central Research Funding for making this project and publication possible. We would also like to express our sincere thanks to the Staats- und Universitätsbibliothek Bremen for funding the Open-Access publication costs.

Finally, we would like to thank dearly those who made the success of the conference possible, even in difficult Covid times, and provided invaluable assistance: We gratefully acknowledge Claudia Ulrich and Ulrich Achenbach for their magnificent organizational or technical support, as well as our student assistants Anastasia Parinow and Celina Imm for the wonderful work they did and the help they provided during the conference and subsequently in preparing the volume. Finally, we dearly thank Teresa Cordero for her indispensable help in redacting this book.
