This edited volume is the outcome of a workshop for junior researchers that took place at the Collaborative Research Centre (SFB 700) 'Governance in Areas of Limited Statehood' of Freie Universität Berlin in November 2016. We would like to take this opportunity to thank the many people whose assistance, cooperation and support made both the workshop and this edited volume possible.

Professor Dr. Heike Krieger, principal investigator of Research Project C8 'Legitimacy and Law-Making in International Humanitarian Law', supported the project from its inception and raised the necessary funds for it.

Freie Universität Berlin students Valentina Chiofalo, Jan Lukas Eiken and Antonia Herzog, who supported the organisation of the workshop as well as the editing process leading up to the publication of this volume, were diligent and conscientious research assistants. Sandra Esser assisted with the English language and honed the contributions as only a native speaker can.

We thank the participants of the workshop and especially Matthias Lippold, Dorota Banaszewska and Hannah Dönges, whose interesting and well-researched talks unfortunately could not become part of this volume. However, we tried to integrate their major research findings into this volume where possible.

We are grateful for the generous support for this project provided by the Freie Universität Berlin, the SFB 700 and the German Research Foundation (DFG).

Last but not least, we would like to thank Nomos and in particular Dr. Matthias Knopik and Stefanie Meyer for their support in publishing this volume.
