

Contents

---

Foreword

Bori Fehér, Janka Csernák ..... 9

Chapter 1 / Understanding Design and Crisis

A Collaborative Approach to Designing Post-Disaster Living Spaces After the 2023 Earthquake in Türkiye

H. Gamze Ekin & Begüm Akkaya ..... 17

Not Another Shelter. Traps of Solutionism in Humanitarian Design

Johanna Mehl ..... 37

Gendered Design for Gendered Crisis: Women's Experiences in Public Transport

Pinar Kaygan, & Harun Kaygan ..... 51

How does Facilitating Relations between Generations Prevent Urban Isolation? The Response of Intergenerational Cohousing through Prospective Solidarity Design

Thomas Watkin ..... 63

Chapter 2 / Crisis, Literacies, and Practices

A Toolbox for Introducing Co-design Processes in Rural Areas with Social Innovation Hosting Initiatives

Massimo Menichinelli, Denise de Spirito, Elena Elizondo Nieva, Iván Paz ..... 79

Transforming the Transformer in a Time of Crisis. Marie Neurath's Experience in the Time of the Web

Matteo Maria Moretti ..... 99

Disrupting by Design: Assessing Imaginaries of Techno-Futures Stefanie Ollenburg, Marius Land .....	119
--	-----

Kembali – Return and Transformation. Spotlighting Design Solutions for Indonesia’s Plastic Pollution Crisis Flavia Alice Mameli .....	135
--	-----

Chapter 3 / Crisis and Communities

Visual Communication Bridging Intercultural Barriers: Visual Methods Supporting the Social Inclusion of Young Refugees Ágnes Jekli .....	149
---	-----

More-than-Verbal Tools: Making Participation Tangible and Embodied through Ad-hoc Design Tools When Working with Migrant Women Seçil Uğur Yavuz, Merve Bektaş, Teresa Palmieri, Ingrid Kofler, Aart van Bezooijen, Gianluca Tenin .....	165
--	-----

Better Together: Responding to Crisis through Transdisciplinary Approaches and New Tools Svenja Bickert-Appleby, Carla Sophia Jakobowsky, Theresa Kousseva, Irene Elisabeth Müller, Anja Richert, Valérie Varney .....	181
---	-----

Designing Together in Multi-Crisis Times: Effects of Mundane and Strategic Work with Indigenous Communities in the Ecuadorian Amazon Nathaly Pinto, Efrén Nango .....	201
--	-----

Chapter 4 / Crisis and Education

Applying Human-Centered Design Methods to Social Design Education Antonia Monjo Palau .....	227
--	-----

Design Pedagogy in an Uncertain World: Sensible, Transdisciplinary, and Post-Human Approaches Cecilia De Marinis, Jaron Rowan .....	239
--	-----

Chapter 5 / PhD + MA Track

How Makerspace in School Helps Develop NAT2020 Core Competencies Anna Barsy, Sára Fleischer .....	255
Sensory Methods towards More-than-Human Placemaking – A Case Study of Traditional Floodplain Farming at the Tisza River Zsófia Szonja Illés .....	259
Intention-setting with Reflexivity and Introspection: a Driving Force of More Ethical Design Practice Réka Sára Mezei, Julia Maria Podobas .....	263
Design as a therapy: Using Design Methods to Support Processing Trauma of Forced Migration and Loss of Place Erzsébet Hosszu .....	265
‘Acerba Diaspora’: the Becoming Identity of New Generations Kseniia Obukhova .....	267

Chapter 6 / Activation Day and Workshop Results

Appendix

Authors .....	277
----------------------	-----

